Alternative And Bottom Up Peace Indicators:

Alternative and bottom-up peace indicators Roger Mac Ginty, 2016-04-14 There is widespread dissatisfaction with the current suite of evaluation and monitoring tools available to peacebuilders and those responding to conflict Yet despite this dissatisfaction there are few concrete moves to investigate alternative methods of gauging the success or failure of peace initiatives This volume explores alternative methods of assessing peace These methods tend to be bottom up and people centric and are interested in many aspects of conflict societies that orthodox top down indicators often miss The methods explored in this work chime with the contemporary interest in critical approaches to peace and conflict studies and approaches that are interested in local perspectives The volume also connects with a growing interest in civic epistemology or the co production of data whereby research subjects participate in the research and have a chance of understanding the relevance of research All of the contributors to the volume have significant field experience in conflict affected areas and their work is informed by an engagement with the everyday challenges and opportunities facing people in war zones This book was published as a special issue of the Journal of Intervention and Statebuilding The Oxford Handbook of Peacebuilding, Statebuilding, and Peace Formation Oliver P. Richmond, Gözüm Visoka, 2021 Peacebuilding and statebuilding is one of the main approaches for preventing managing and mitigating global insecurities dealing with the humanitarian consequences of civil wars and expanding democracy and neoliberal economic regimes Peace formation is a relatively new concept addressing how local actors attempt to shape or work in parallel to international and national projects The Oxford Handbook of Peacebuilding Statebuilding and Peace Formation serves as an essential guide to this vast intellectual landscape It offers a systematic overview of conceptual foundations political implications and tensions at the global regional and local levels as well as key policies practices examples and discourses underlining all segments of peacebuilding and statebuilding

Locally Based Civil Conflict Transformation Between Partnership and Power Imbalance Samantha Ruppel, 2025-02-12 This book examines the processes and dynamics of cooperation between different actors in civil peace service projects in Kenya Sierra Leone and Liberia The joint handling of conflicts and peacebuilding challenges by local and international actors has a long tradition in German peace work and is becoming increasingly important in a globalized world Therefore the book explores the question relevant for both academia and peace practitioners to what extent an equal partnership can exist in the context of civil conflict transformation By focusing on the opportunities and challenges of cooperation the work succeeds in focusing on everyday activities analyzing the actual processes and frictions of peace work and making a valuable contribution to critical peace research and the discussion of hybridity and friction Alternative Perspectives on Peacebuilding Mark S. Cogan, Hidekazu Sakai, 2022-10-11 This book analyses and furthers the academic debates on post liberal peacebuilding through a number of conceptual theoretical and empirical research outputs Part I includes a review of how the recent discourse on peacebuilding has evolved and three conceptual theoretical perspectives relevant to post liberal peacebuilding

In particular the editors propose the concept of bespoke peacebuilding to articulate key features of new peacebuilding models Part II introduces five case studies that present how alternative peacebuilding models are being shaped or can be shaped in practice Essential reading for scholars and students in Peace and Conflict Studies International Relations and International Security Studies Chapter 8 is available open access under a Creative Commons Attribution 4.0 International License via link springer.com

Patterns of Sustaining Peace Julia Leib, 2024-09-26 This book explores how to establish peace in societies recovering from large scale armed conflicts by introducing the sustaining peace scale as a continuous measure for peacebuilding success Drawing on an extensive data collection of peacebuilding episodes over almost three decades the author analyses the impact of four peacebuilding practices international commitment power sharing security sector reform and transitional justice Having established the framework the author applies it to the peacebuilding processes in Sierra Leone and South Africa An important contribution to the literature on successful peacebuilding this book will be essential reading for peacebuilding scholars and practitioners

Peace in Political Unsettlement Jan Pospisil, 2018-12-11 International peacebuilding has reached an impasse Its lofty ambitions have resulted in at best middling success punctuated by moments of outright failure The discrediting of the term liberal peacebuilding has seen it evolve to respond to the numerous critiques Notions such as inclusive peace merge the liberal paradigm with critical notions of context and the need to refine practices to take account of the local or complexity However how this would translate into clear guidance for the practice of peacebuilding is unclear Paradoxically contemporary peacebuilding policy has reached an unprecedented level of vagueness Peace in political unsettlement provides an alternative response rooted in a new discourse which aims to speak both to the experience of working in peace process settings It maps a new understanding of peace processes as institutionalising formalised political unsettlement and points out new ways of engaging with it The book points to the ways in which peace processes institutionalise forms of disagreement creating ongoing processes to manage it rather than resolve it It suggests a modest approach of providing hooks to future processes maximising the use of creative non solutions and practices of disrelation are discussed as pathways for pragmatic post war transitions It is only by understanding the nature and techniques of formalised political unsettlement that new constructive ways of engaging with it can be found

Making Geographies of Peace and Conflict Colin Flint, Kara E. Dempsey, 2023-11-17 This book illustrates the diversity of current geographies ontologies engagements and epistemologies of peace and conflict It emphasizes how agencies of peace and conflict occur in geographic settings and how those settings shape processes of peace and conflict The essence of the book's logic is that war and peace are manifestations of the intertwined construction of geographies and politics Indeed peace is never completely distinct from war Each chapter in the book will demonstrate understandings of how the myriad spaces of war and peace are forged by multiple agencies some possibly contradictory The goals of these agents vary as peace and war are relational place specific processes The reader will understand the mutual construction of spaces and processes of peace and conflict through engagement with the concepts of agency the mutual construction of politics and space geographic scales multiple geographies the twin dynamics of empathy othering and inclusivity partitioning and resistance militarism The book discusses the intertwined nature of peace and conflict including reference to the environment global climate change borders technology and postcolonialism This book is valuable for instructors teaching a variety of senior level human geography courses including graduate level classes It will appeal to those working in political geography historical geography sociology of geographic knowledge feminist geography cultural and economic geography political science and international relations
