1. A columnist is expected to be good at presenting facts as he chooses to write any topic about his column.

3. The editor and the publisher are liable to any written topics of the columnist once the article is published.
4. A columnist is allowed to have multiple topics or issues in one column so long as he uses breaks like moustache.
5. In writing a column, the writer is expected to become both authoritative and preachy.
6. Like news, a column needs a vast array of facts on the subject but does NOT need quoted statements anymore.
7. A column also follows the principles of persuasion in showcasing the writer's arguments.
8. Unlike titles of feature stories, the title of one's column should be serious, thus not that catchy.
9. Figures of speech like comparison and alliteration can be used in a feature story but NOT in a column.
10. In column writing, a writer is given a freedom to choose his subject and theme, but is limited on the style he may use.
