Animal Narratology Joela Jacobs,2020-12-15 Animal Narratology interrogates what it means to narrate to speak speak for on behalf of and to voice or represent life beyond the human which is in itself as different as insects bears and dogs are from each other and yet more as individual as a single mouse horse or puma The varied contributions to this interdisciplinary Special Issue highlight assumptions about the human perception of attitude toward and responsibility for the animals that are read and written about thus demonstrating that just as the animal does not exist neither does the human In their zoopoetic focus the analyses are aware that animal narratology ultimately always contains an approximation of an animal perspective in human terms and terminology yet they make clear that what matters is how the animal is approximated and that there is an effort to approach and encounter the non human in the first place Many of the analyses come to the conclusion that literary animals give readers the opportunity to expand their own points of view both on themselves and others by adopting another s perspective to the degree that such an endeavor is possible Ultimately the contributions call for a recognition of the many spaces moments and modes in which human lives are entangled with those of animals one of which is located within the creative bounds of storytelling

The Figure of the Animal in Modern and Contemporary Poetry Michael Malay,2018-06-05 This book argues that there are deep connections between poetic thinking and the sensitive recognition of creaturely others It explores this proposition in relation to four poets Marianne Moore Elizabeth Bishop Ted Hughes and Les Murray Through a series of close readings and by paying close attention to issues of sound rhythm simile metaphor and image it explores how poetry cultivates a special openness towards animal others The thinking behind this book is inspired by J M Coetzee s The Lives of Animals In particular it takes up that book s suggestion that poetry invites us to relate to animals in an open ended and sympathetic manner Poets according to Elizabeth Costello the book s protagonist return the living electric being to language and doing so compel us to open our hearts towards animals and the claims they make upon us There are special affinities for her between the music of poetry and the recognition of others But what might it mean to say that poets to return life to language And why might this have any bearing on our relationship with animals Beyond offering many suggestive starting points Elizabeth Costello says very little about the nature of poetry s special relationship with the animal one aim of this study then is to ask of what this relationship consists not least by examining the various ways poets have bodied forth animals in language
