Madame Jazz Leslie Gourse,1996-05-23 Nadine Jansen a flugelhornist and pianist remembers a night in the 1940s when a man came out of the audience as she was playing both instruments I hate to see a woman do that he explained as he hit the end of her horn nearly chipping her tooth Half a century later a big band named Diva made its debut in New York on March 30 1993 with Melissa Slocum on bass Sue Terry on alto sax Lolly Bienenfeld on trombone Sherrie Maricle on drums and a host of other first rate instrumentalists The band made such a good impression that it was immediately booked to play at Carnegie Hall the following year For those who had yet to notice Diva signaled the emergence of women musicians as a significant force in jazz Madame Jazz is a fascinating invitation to the inside world of women in jazz Ranging primarily from the late 1970s to today s vanguard of performance jazz in New York City and on the West Coast it chronicles a crucial time of transition as women make the leap from novelty acts regarded as second class citizens to sought out professionals admired and hired for their consummate musicianship Author Leslie Gourse surveys the scene in the jazz clubs the concert halls the festivals and the recording studios from the musicians point of view She finds exciting progress on all fronts but also lingering discrimination The growing success of women instrumentalists has been a long time in coming she writes Long after women became accepted as writers and to a lesser extent as visual artists women in music classical pop or jazz faced the nearly insuperable barrier of chauvinism and the still insidious force of tradition and habit that keeps most men performing with the musicians they have always worked with other men Gourse provides dozens of captivating no holds barred interviews with both rising stars and seasoned veterans Here are up and coming pianists Renee Rosnes and Rachel Z trumpeter Rebecca Coupe Frank saxophonist Virginia Mayhew bassist Tracy Wormworth and drummer Terri Lynne Carrington and enduring legends Dorothy Donegan Marian McParland and Shirley Horne Here as well are conversations with three pioneering business women agent and producer Helen Keane manager Linda Goldstein and festival and concert producer Cobi Narita All of the women speak insightfully about their inspiration and their commitment to pursuing the music they love They are also frank about the realities of life on the road and the extra dues women musicians pay in a tough and competitive field where everybody pays dues A separate chapter offers a closer look at women musicians and the continual stress confronting those who would combine love marriage and or motherhood with a life in music Madame Jazz is about the history that women jazz instrumentalists are making now as well as an inspiring preview of the even brighter days ahead It concludes with Frankie Nemko s lively evaluation of the West Coast jazz scene and appends the most comprehensive list ever assembled of women currently playing instruments professionally
