Physically: you will correspond. This part is a bit important and should be handled with care. You will have to get your computer (and I am talking to all other users) online in the middle of the evening (approximately 10:00 PM) and stay up to receive incoming files in the morning. That's something that will make you a computered user and for this reason, computered users should be a bit more careful and more responsible than other users.

It is found that the proposed method is more efficient than the existing methods in terms of the number of iterations and the number of function evaluations. The proposed method is also more robust than the existing methods in terms of the number of successful runs.
