

Direction: Read the passage given below and answer the questions that follow:

Personally I dislike the praise of poverty and suffering. I do not think they are at all desirable, and they ought to be abolished. Nor do I appreciate the ascetic life as a social ideal though it may suit individuals. I understand and appreciate simplicity, equality, self-control but not the torturing of the body, I believe that the mind and habits have also to be trained and brought under control. It would be absurd to expect that a person who is given too much self-love can endure much suffering or show unusual self-control or behave like a hero when crisis comes. To be in good moral condition requires as much training to be in physical health.

The writer does not like the praise of poverty. It is:

- A. Personal opinion
- B. Opinion of the all people
- C. Opinion of the ascetics
- D. Opinion of the simple people

2. To whom the ascetic life may be suitable?

- A. To the writer
- B. To the socially advanced
- C. To individuals
- D. To all the members of society

3. What does the author mean by 'ascetic life' in the passage?

- A. Equality
- B. Self-control
- C. Simplicity
- D. Mortification of the body

4. Which of the following words could replace the word 'absurd' as used in the passage?
