National Labor Relations Board,2015-08 Legislative Calendar United States. Congress. House. Committee on Energy and Commerce,2014 Enabling Acts Lennard J. Davis,2016-06-07 The first major behind the scenes account of the history passage and impact of the Americans with Disabilities Act ADA the landmark moment for disability rights The Americans with Disabilities Act ADA is the widest ranging and most comprehensive piece of civil rights legislation ever passed in the United States and it has become the model for disability based laws around the world Yet the surprising story behind how the bill came to be is little known In this riveting account acclaimed disability scholar Lennard J Davis delivers the first on the ground narrative of how a band of leftist

Berkeley hippies managed to make an alliance with upper crust conservative Republicans to bring about a truly bipartisan bill. Based on extensive interviews with all the major players involved including legislators and activists Davis recreates the dramatic tension of a story that is anything but a dry account of bills and speeches. Rather it is filled with one indefatigable character after another culminating in explosive moments when the hidden army of the disability community stages scenes like the iconic Capitol Crawl or an event when students stormed Gallaudet University demanding a Deaf President. Now from inside the offices of newly formed disability groups to secret breakfast meetings surreptitiously held outside the White House grounds here we meet countless unsung characters including political heavyweights and disability advocates on the front lines. You want to fight an angered Ted Kennedy would shout in an upstairs room at the Capitol while negotiating the final details of the ADA. Congressman Tony Coelho whose parents once thought him to be possessed by the devil because of his epilepsy later became the bill's primary sponsor. There's Justin Dart adorned in disability power buttons and his signature cowboy hat who took to the road canvassing 50 states and people like Patrisha Wright also known as The General. Arlene Myerson or the brains architect Bob Funk and visionary Mary Lou Breslin who left the hippie highlands of the West to pursue equal rights in the marble halls of DC.

Standing on the Edge of Being Richard D. Oram, 2024-11-21 Drawing together the evidence of archaeology palaeoecology climate history and the historical record this first environmental history of Scotland explores the interaction of human populations with the land waters forests and wildlife. This volume takes the reader from the mid nineteenth century to the present confronting the Anthropocene the era where human action became a key driver of environmental and climatic change and explores Scotland's experience of its consequences and costs. In the first half of the book we chart a course through a century of decline and loss alongside the first serious efforts to curb and reverse the worst environmental impacts from the filth spewing cities and foul factory emissions of the lowlands to the degraded mountains moorland and waters of the upland zones. In the second half we trace the conflict between pressures to develop and to conserve to go for economic growth or environmental protection against the backdrop of mounting public awareness of an unfolding environmental disaster. We see how political compromises have failed to deliver security for jobs or the environment and how the toxic legacies of now vanished industries have been left to the public purse to remediate. But even now all is not lost this final volume of the exploration of the last two thousand years of Scotland's environmental history calls for deeper and wider public engagement in shaping a future vision for the nation.
