This manual implements Air Force Policy Directive (AFPD) 36-21, Continuity and Classification of Air Force Military Personnel, and establishes the Air Force officer job structure. Effective 10 April 2004, it has replaced Military Personnel (MILPER) and Education, the military classification system and basic level personnel, specialty descriptions and other identifiers custom created for Force management, technical, and professional duties. The job structure and specialties provide a planned pattern of officer careers. Officers must work with commanders and supervisors to develop their capabilities within these specialties. Minimize and dispose of records caused by a result of personnel processes in accordance with AFMAN 36-2401, Records Management System.
