Resources in Education ,2001 Handbook of Education Policy Research Gary Sykes,Barbara Schneider,David N. Plank,2012-09-10 Co published by Routledge for the American Educational Research Association AERA Educational policy continues to be of major concern Policy debates about economic growth and national competitiveness for example commonly focus on the importance of human capital and a highly educated workforce Defining the theoretical boundaries and methodological approaches of education policy research are the two primary themes of this comprehensive AERA sponsored Handbook Organized into seven sections the Handbook focuses on 1 disciplinary foundations of educational policy 2 methodological perspectives 3 the policy process 4 resources management and organization 5 teaching and learning policy 6 actors and institutions and 7 education access and differentiation Drawing from multiple disciplines the Handbook s over one hundred authors address three central questions What policy issues and questions have oriented current policy research

What research strategies and methods have proven most fruitful And what issues questions and methods will drive future policy research Topics such as early childhood education school choice access to higher education teacher accountability and testing and measurement cut across the 63 chapters in the volume The politics surrounding these and other issues are objectively analyzed by authors and commentators Each of the seven sections concludes with two commentaries by leading scholars in the field The first considers the current state of policy design and the second addresses the current state of policy research This book is appropriate for scholars and graduate students working in the field of education policy and for the growing number of academic government and think tank researchers engaged in policy research For more information on the American Educational Research Association please visit <http://www.aera.net> Homeschooling Laws Steve

Deckard,2001-09 Handbook of Comparative Education Law: Selected Nations from Africa and the Americas

Charles J. Russo,2019-08-09 Each of the four volumes in this set as well as each volume independently provide comparative analyses for researches practitioners and students of the law and education in examining law and education in various countries around the world Designed to allow readers to learn from rather than copy the legal and educational systems in these volumes the books are designed to generate thought and conversation on how education can be improved around the world By having chapter authors leading academicians in the home countries follow the same template so it can be easier to compare similarities and differences thereby helping to make the book user friendly The value of these books is that they should help to enhance international awareness of the similarities and advantages associated with bringing together knowledge from various countries concerning education law Volume 4 encompassing Selected Nations in Africa and the Americas namely Brazil Canada Mauritius United States South Africa and Venezuela consists of detailed analysis of educational law and systems in these representative countries so researchers and students there and elsewhere can learn from one another The Homeschooling Handbook Mary Griffith,1997 As many as two million parents now educate their children at home and many more are considering the idea This non ideological book examines the pros and cons discusses how to handle regulations and shows how to design and implement a productive learning atmosphere at home for students of all ages
