

Grasping God's Word

A Hands-on Approach to reading, interpreting, and applying the Bible

1. The Interpretive Journey

The interpretive steps:

- Step 1: Grasp the text in their town.
What did the text mean to the original audience?
- Step 2: Measure the width of the river to cross. What are the differences between the biblical audience and us?
- Step 3: Cross the principaling bridge.
What is the theological principle in this text?*
- Step 4: Grasp the text in our town.
How should individual Christians today apply the theological principle in their lives?

*Note that between steps 3 & 4 For interpreting the OT is an additional step: Cross into the NT. Does the NT teaching modify or qualify this principle, and if so, how?

Criteria for Principles

- The principle should be reflected in the text.
- The principle should be timeless and not tied to a specific situation.
- The principle should not be culturally bound.
- The principle should correspond to the teaching of the rest of the Bible.
- The principle should be relevant to both the biblical and the contemporary audience.

2 - 4. How to Read Sentences, Paragraphs, Discourses

Repetition of words. Look for words and phrases that repeat.

Contrasts. Look for ideas, individuals, and/or items contrasted with each other.

Comparisons. Look for ideas, individuals, and/or items compared with each other.

Lists. Whenever the text mentions more than two items, identify it as a list.

Cause and effect. Look for cause-and-effect relationships.

Figures of speech. Identify expressions that convey an image using words in a sense other than the normal literal sense.

Conjunctions. Notice terms that join units, like "and," "but," "for." Note what they are connecting.

Verbs. Note active, passive, past, present, etc.

Pronouns. Identify the antecedent for each pronoun.

Questions and answers. Note if the text is built on a question/answer format.

Dialogue. Note if the text includes dialogue. Identify who is speaking and to whom.

Means. Note if a sentence indicates that something was done by means of someone/thing (answers "how?"). Usually you can insert the phrase "by means of" into the sentence.

Purpose/result sentences. These are a more specific type of "means," often telling "why." Purpose and result are similar and sometimes indistinguishable. In a purpose statement, you usually can insert "in order that"; in a result clause, "so that."

General ⇄ specific. Find general statements followed by specific examples or applications. Also find specific statements that are summarized by a general one.

Conditional clauses. A clause can present the condition by which some action or consequence will result. Often such statements use an "if...then" framework (although in English "then" is often left out).

Actions/roles of God. Identify actions or roles that the text ascribes to God.

Actions/roles of people. Identify actions or roles that the text ascribes to people or encourages people to do/be.

Emotional terms. Does the passage use terms with emotional energy, like kinship words (father, son) or words like "pleading"?

Tone of the passage. What is the overall tone of the passage: happy, sad, encouraging, etc.?

Chiasm. Does the passage have any chiasmic arrangements, like a-b-c-d-c'-b'-a'?

Interchange. Does the passage shift back and forth between two scenes or characters?

Connections to other paragraphs and episodes. How does the passage connect to the one that precedes it and the one that follows it?

Shifts in the story/pivots. Is the passage being used as a key to understanding a dramatic shift in the story?

5. What Do We Bring to the Text?

1. The Bible is the Word of God. Although God worked through people to produce it, it is nonetheless inspired by the Holy Spirit and is God's Word to us.
2. The bible is trustworthy and true.
3. God has entered into human history; thus supernatural (miracles, etc.) does occur.
4. The Bible is not contradictory; it is unified, yet diverse. Nevertheless, God is bigger than we are, and he is not always easy to comprehend.

Presuppositions don't change each time we study a passage.

Preunderstanding refers to all of our preconceived notions and understandings that we bring to the text that have been formulated, both consciously and subconsciously, before we actually study the text in detail.

Our culture produces interpretational reflex:

1. We tend to fill in all of the gaps and ambiguities in the biblical texts with explanations from our culture.
2. Our cultural background performs a parameter of limiting possibilities for a text even before we grapple with the intended meaning. In this situation, based on our culture we subconsciously create a world of

Bringing the Depths into Focus T. Scott Womble, 2021-08-16 The Bible is a frustrating book to many Christians It's not uncommon to hear that it's difficult to understand To complicate the matter we live in a culture that dismisses the importance of God's word altogether and we are left to wonder if Scripture has lost its impact At a time when the world needs the wisdom of God's word many are skeptical as to why they should bother reading the Bible at all Scott Womble brings hope to this bleak situation by showing how we can not only learn to read and interpret the Bible more skillfully but also enjoy our time in study In addition to discussing critical issues such as literary context genre identification and background study Womble breaks new ground by encouraging us to both hear and see the text semiotically This incorporation of semiotics into the interpretive process helps us more fully interact with the word While sound interpretation is of great importance the end goal of Bible reading is application For Womble this is the crux of the matter Scanning prominent theories of application and concluding with seven guidelines this book is sure to help Jesus followers become more intentional doers of the word

Elder Richard T. Avery,2024-08-19 There is an erroneous doctrine that is the result of misinterpretation and contextual errors that is gaining momentum in religious organizations The use of a peculiar verbiage that changes the narrative of the word of God is being taught from palatial mega churches to small storefront edifices The teaching of generational curses conveys the false message that born again Spirit led believers in Jesus Christ can be the recipient of generational curses In these volatile uncertain times believers are being sold biblical snake oil as an answer to why they are unable to overcome a multiplicity of failures in their lives Because of the lack of dedicated personal study of the scriptures believers are gravitating to a teaching that has changed the narrative of what Jesus Christ taught in the gospels This book is the journey of an angry rebellious teen who was indoctrinated by his mother into believing he was generationally cursed His life was in the fast lane of a highway heading in the wrong direction toward eternal destruction However Jesus Christ intervened guided him to an exit and led him to the heaven bound highway He transitioned from an incarcerated prisoner of sin to a liberated prosecutor of generational curses In a unique creative exposition Elder Richard Avery examines how from the beginning Satan uses the tactic of changing the narrative of God s word to confuses believers and corrupt their belief in the word of God With the use of contextual accuracy he prosecutes the cursed words from the Bible that are being used to imprison those whom the Son has set free How to Preach the Prophets for All Their Worth Andrew G. M. Hamilton,2022-05-24 The Old Testament prophetic books play a key role in revealing God s plan of salvation They occupy a significant portion of the biblical canon similar in size to the entire New Testament Yet most believers stay clear of this part of Scripture They avoid traveling through this forest of oracles and visions Many preachers also struggle to navigate this unfamiliar territory Preachers feel much more at ease unpacking the intricate arguments of the Pauline epistles or following the thrilling adventures of biblical narratives rather than exploring the prophetic books The church however needs to hear and respond to the beauty depth and relevance of the prophetic message This book not only provides convincing reasons for preaching the prophets today but also offers concrete guidelines to empower preachers small group leaders youth workers etc to communicate the message of the prophets with hermeneutical precision theological depth genre sensitivity and pastoral pulse This book motivates and equips preachers to travel with confidence through this uncharted territory and to help God s people enjoy the scenery of this part of God s word
