DNA Profiling Isabelle Denervaud, Olivier Chatin, 2011 This book explores an organic vision of company innovation through an analogy with DNA and its four nitrogenous bases Like all living organisms a company has the fundamental genetic bases of its ability to innovate This DNA mutates under both environmental influences and evolutionary factors allowing a company to develop new patterns of behaviour At the dawn of the 21st century the result of this process is the emergence of what we could call the hyperconnected company Through this ongoing metaphor the book provides decision makers with several paths along which to increase their ability to innovate taking advantage of genetic bases such as their own factors of change The study is based on observations made of large companies for whom innovation is an absolute imperative It alternates theoretical analyses with concrete illustrations and spotlights innovation leaders such as Louis Vuitton 3M Bouygues Telecom BNP Paribas Siemens Danone Air Liquide to name but a few

Digital Knowledge Maps in Education Dirk Ifenthaler, Ria Hanewald, 2013-11-01 Digital knowledge maps are at a glance visual representations that enable enriching imaginative and transformative ways for teaching and learning with the potential to enhance positive educational outcomes The use of such maps has generated much attention and interest among tertiary education practitioners and researchers over the last few years as higher education institutions around the world begin to invest heavily into new technologies designed to provide online spaces within which to build resources and conduct activities The key elements of this edited volume will comprise original and innovative contributions to existing scholarship in this field with examples of pedagogical possibilities as they are currently practiced across a range of contexts It will contain chapters that address theory research and practical issues related to the use of digital knowledge maps in all aspects of tertiary education and draws predominantly on international perspectives with a diverse group of invited contributors Reports on empirical studies as well as theoretical conceptual chapters that engage deeply with pertinent questions and issues raised from a pedagogical social cultural philosophical and or ethical standpoint are included Systematic literature reviews dealing with digital knowledge mapping in education are also an integral part of the volume
