Chapter 6 Study Guide

CHAPTER 6: CIVIL RIGHTS

2. Legal Basics of Civil Rights

Civil Rights versus Civil Liberties

- How does the textbook define civil rights? Civil rights and civil liberties are both types of legal rights. How are they different from each other?
- What is meant by the terms “public discrimination” and “private discrimination”?

Three Sources of Civil Rights Laws

- Which kind of discrimination (public or private) is prohibited by the Constitution? Which kind can only be prohibited by laws passed by legislatures or regulatory agencies?
- According to the textbook, what is the most important provision of the U.S. Constitution with respect to civil rights?
- What is meant by the “state action doctrine”?
- Be sure to understand what public accommodations are. (Remember, they are privately owned, and thus discrimination by them is private discrimination.)
- Which act of Congress (passed in 1964) bans discrimination by public accommodations? Is discrimination by public accommodations prohibited by the U.S. Constitution or by legislative statutes?

The U.S. Supreme Court’s Standards of Review for Determining the Constitutionality of Public Discrimination

- What is meant by standards of review? What are the three standards?
 - What is strict scrutiny? It is applied to “suspect classes.” What examples of suspect classes are discussed in the textbook?
 - What is intermediate scrutiny? How is it different from strict scrutiny? To what form(s) of discrimination is intermediate scrutiny applied?
 - What is meant by “rational basis”?

3. The African American Struggle for Civil Rights

The Rise of Jim Crow

- After the Reconstruction Period, so-called Jim Crow laws emerged across the South that deprived African Americans of many of their constitutional rights and created a system of subjugation.
 - What role did white supremacist terror organizations, such as the Ku Klux Klan, play in perpetuating the Jim Crow system?
 - What was the convict-leasing system? And what is meant by “peonage”?
 - In what state did the most lynchings occur between 1877-1950? How many lynchings occurred across the nation during this period?
 - What happened during the Atlanta Race Riot of 1906?
 - How did this and other riots and massacres impact the civil rights movement and African American rights?
