Kidd, Joseph T. Thomas Jr., 2016-11-10 Children s book awards have mushroomed since the early twentieth century and especially since the 1960s when literary prizing became a favored strategy for both commercial promotion and canon making There are over 300 awards for English language titles alone but despite the profound impact of children s book awards scholars have paid relatively little attention to them This book is the first scholarly volume devoted to the analysis of Anglophone children s book awards in historical and cultural context With attention to both political and aesthetic concerns the book offers original and diverse scholarship on prizing practices and their consequences in Australia Canada and especially the United States Contributors offer both case studies of particular awards and analysis of broader trends in literary evaluation and elevation drawing on theoretical work on canonization and cultural capital Sections interrogate the complex and often unconscious ideological work of prizing the ongoing tension between formalist awards and so called identity based awards all the more urgent in light of the We Need Diverse Books campaign the ever morphing forms and parameters of prizing and scholarly practices of prizing Among the many awards discussed are the Pura Belpr Medal the Inky Awards the Canada Governor General Literary Award the Printz Award the Best Animated Feature Oscar the Phoenix Award and the John Newbery Medal giving due attention to prizes for fiction as well as for non fiction poetry and film This volume will interest scholars in literary and cultural studies social history book history sociology education library and information science and anyone concerned with children s literature

New Forms of Self-Narration Ana Belén Martínez García,2020-08-21 This book is a timely study of young women s life writing as a form of human rights activism It focuses on six young women who suffered human rights violations when they were girls and have gone on to become activists through life writing Malala Yousafzai Hyeonseo Lee Yeonmi Park Bana Alabed Nujeen Mustafa and Nadia Murad Their ongoing life writing projects diverge to some extent but all share several notable features they claim a testimonial collective voice they deploy rights discourse they excite humanitarian emotions they link up their context bound plight with bigger social justice causes and they use English as their vehicle of self expression and self construction This strategic use of English is of vital importance as it has brought them together as icons in the public sphere within the last six years New Forms of Self Narration is the first ever attempt to explore all these activists life writing texts side by side encompassing both the written and the audiovisual material online and offline and taking all texts as belonging to a unique single though multifaceted project
