Ritual Mask Making Theresa Walton, AI, 2025-03-29 Ritual Mask Making explores the captivating world of indigenous masks revealing them not merely as artifacts but as vital components of spiritual rituals cultural preservation and governance These masks passed down through generations serve as conduits to the spirit world enabling connections with deities and ancestors in various indigenous cultures Intriguingly masks also function as instruments of social and political order reflecting authority and resolving conflicts thereby challenging Western centric views on art and power The book traces the historical evolution of mask making traditions examining the impact of colonialism and globalization Through ethnographic studies archaeological findings and visual analysis it presents a holistic view of these dynamic expressions of cultural identity By delving into specific case studies across different cultures the book highlights the materials techniques and symbolism inherent in these masks emphasizing their contemporary relevance in promoting cultural revitalization and addressing ethical considerations surrounding their study and display Handbook of South American Indians: The tropical forest tribes Julian Haynes Steward, 1946 The Death of Authentic Primitive Art Shelly Errington, 2023-09-01 In this lucid witty and forceful book Shelly Errington argues that Primitive Art was invented as a new type of art object at the beginning of the twentieth century but that now at the century's end it has died a double but contradictory death Authenticity and primitivism both attacked by cultural critics have died as concepts At the same time the penetration of nation states the tourist industry and transnational corporations into regions that formerly produced these artifacts has severely reduced supplies of primitive art bringing about a second death Errington argues that the construction of the primitive in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries and the kinds of objects chosen to exemplify it must be understood as a product of discourses of progress from the nineteenth century European narrative of technological progress to the twentieth century narrative of modernism to the late twentieth century narrative of the triumph of the free market In Part One she charts a provocative argument ranging through the worlds of museums art theorists mail order catalogs boutiques tourism and world events tracing a loosely historical account of the transformations of meanings of primitive art in this century In Part Two she explores an eclectic collection of public sites in Mexico and Indonesia a national museum of anthropology a cultural theme park an airport and a ninth century Buddhist monument newly refurbished to show how the idea of the primitive can be used in the interests of promoting nationalism and economic development Errington's dissection of discourses about progress and primitivism in the contemporary world is both a lively introduction to anthropological studies of art institutions and a dramatic new contribution to the growing field of cultural studies Expedition and Wilderness Medicine Gregory H. Bledsoe, Michael J. Manyak, David A. Townes, 2008-11-03 With an increase in visits to remote and dangerous locations around the world the number of serious and fatal injuries and illnesses associated with these expeditions has markedly increased Medical personnel working in or near such locations are not always explicitly trained in the management of unique environmental injuries such as high altitude sickness the bends lightning strikes frostbite acute dehydration venomous stings and bites and tropical diseases Many health care professionals seek training in the specialty of wilderness medicine to cope with the health risks faced when far removed from professional care resources and the American College of Emergency Medicine has recently mandated that a minimum level of proficiency needs to be exhibited by all ER physicians in this discipline This book covers everything a prospective field physician or medical consultant needs to prepare for when beginning an expedition and explains how to treat a variety of conditions in a concise clinically oriented format Light in the Dark Room Jay Prosser, 2005 A young boy thin and ill feeds his small brother in a ritualized act of desperation half stifling him The boy will be treated his father will get a job and the family will be moved from their shack in the slums of Rio de Janeiro to a suburban house courtesy of the American viewers of Gordon Parks's photographs in Life magazine It all turned Theology from the Womb of Asia C.S. Song, 2005-07-07 With Theology from the Womb of Asia Song continues to demonstrate that he is one of the most creative and important theologians of our time He forces us to expand the horizons of our theological vision not only by drawing on the resources of Asian thought and experience but also by insisting that we do theology with passion Here he offers images fables poems parables and visions woven together with his own compelling prose The biblical stories with which we thought we were familiar become new and more compelling stories when we revisit them with this able and wise guide And our whole approach to life and living is transformed by the freshness he breathes into all that he surveys with us Robert McAfee Brown Professor Emeritus of Theology and Ethics Pacific School of Religion In Theology from the Womb of Asia C S Song shows how the story of God's compassion in Jesus and the many heartrending stories and poems of the Asian people are reaching out towards each other Doing theology in this perspective is not a matter of application of doctrine but of recognition of a relation between the suffering God and suffering humanity which transcends many artificial and alienating distinctions The book is an appeal to Asian theologians but at the same time a necessary challenge to a Western academic theology and missionary thinking Bert Hoedemaker Professor of Missions and Christian Ethics University of Groningen the Netherlands A splendid example of doing theology with Asian resources A breath of fresh air to liven up traditional theology using original reflections and observations with the backing of close knowledge of traditional theology A book no theological college can do without Yeow Choo Lak The South East Asia Graduate School of Theology Singapore C S Song is Professor of Theology and Asian Cultures at Pacific School of Religion His recent publications include The Believing Heart Handbook of South American Indians Julian Haynes Steward, 1946
