Guided Reading: Government in Colonial America

Directions: Read the main ideas for sections JCE and JCE Chapter 2 + Sections 2 of the documents to complete this statement, with the words inserted in the columns (first) provided. Then, in the Summary 2 column, write down answers to the questions in the space provided.

A. Write down English colonies, ideas about the role and shape of government influenced the growth of the colonies, the laws that (influenced) and the system of government that have today.

1. English, Colonial, customs and administrative from British lawmakers are important contributions to the founding principles and development of the United States.

2. The principle that a government system should absolutely derive from the Magna Carta, which the English people have long regarded as a guarantee of English, government.

3. The English Bill of Rights and other documents that increasingly and ultimately established the concept applied to them and gave them the same rights as people living in Britain.

4. The English system of law, especially as organized by the British Parliament, was widely followed in the colonies.

5. British Parliament, with delegates representing the people, was a familiar example of representative, government, but they criticized it.

6. Thomas Hooker developed the Social, Contract, theory, which suggested that people give up their individual sovereignty to the government in exchange for the government's maintenance of law and order.

7. John Locke suggested that people have natural, rights, as human beings and a government that failed to protect them has lost their legitimacy.

8. John Locke stated that men, women, children, belonged to the same rights and responsibilities and he emphasized that everyone is a naturally equal person in a community, especially as a natural condition the people's rights include controlling law and government.

9. Charles Louis de Montesquieu suggested separation, the powers of government.

10. Write down: Each of the thirteen colonies had its own government consisting
