Whose America? Jonathan Zimmerman,2022-08-26 In this expanded edition of his 2002 book Zimmerman surveys how battles over public education have become conflicts at the heart of American national identity Critical Race Theory The 1619 Project Mask mandates As the headlines remind us American public education is still wracked by culture wars But these conflicts have shifted sharply over the past two decades marking larger changes in the ways that Americans imagine themselves In his 2002 book Whose America Zimmerman predicted that religious differences would continue to dominate the culture wars Twenty years after that seminal work Zimmerman has reconsidered arguments over what American history is what it means and how it is taught have exploded with special force in recent years In this substantially expanded new edition Zimmerman meditates on the history of the culture wars in the classroom and on what our inability to find common ground might mean for our future

American Anthem ,2007 Ageing, Corporeality and Embodiment Chris Gilleard,Paul Higgs,2014-11-01 Ageing Corporeality and Embodiment outlines and develops an argument about the emergence of a new ageing during the second half of the twentieth century and its realisation through the processes of embodiment The authors argue that ageing as a unitary social process and agedness as a distinct social location have lost much of their purchase on the social imagination Instead this work asserts that later life has become as much a field for not becoming old as of old age The volume locates the origins of this transformation in the cultural ferment of the 1960s when new forms of embodiment concerned with identity and the care of the self arose as mass phenomena Over time these new forms of embodiment have been extended changing the traditional relationship between body age and society by making struggles over the care of the self central to the cultures of later life
