Biofuels, Land Grabbing and Food Security in Africa Prosper B. Matondi, Kjell Havnevik, Atakilte Beyene, 2011-06-09 The issue of biofuels has already been much debated but the focus to date has largely been on Latin America and deforestation this highly original work breaks fresh ground in looking at the African perspective Most African governments see biofuels as having the potential to increase agricultural productivity and export incomes and thus strengthen their national economies improving energy balances and rural employment At the same time climate change may be addressed through reduction of green house gas emissions There are however a number of uncertainties mounting that challenge this scenario Using cutting edge empirical case studies this knowledge gap is addressed in a variety of chapters examining the effects of large scale biofuel production on African agriculture In particular land grabbing and food security issues are scrutinised both of which have become vital topics in regard to the environmental and developmental governance of African countries A revealing book for anyone wishing to understand the startling impact of biofuels and land grabbing on Africa The Informal Economy, SME's, and the 'missing Middle' in Zimbabwe Mark Simpson, 2010 Agriculture in Urban Planning Mark

Redwood, 2012 This volume by graduate researchers working in urban agriculture examines concrete strategies to integrate city farming into the urban landscape Drawing on original field work in cities across the rapidly urbanizing global south the book examines the contribution of urban agriculture and city farming to livelihoods and food security Case studies cover food production diversification for robust and secure food provision the socio economic and agronomic aspects of urban composting urban agriculture as a viable livelihood strategy strategies for integrating city farming into urban landscapes and the complex social ecological networks of urban agriculture Other case studies look at public health aspects including the impact of pesticides micro biological risks pollution and water contamination on food production and people Ultimately the book calls on city farmers politicians environmentalists and regulatory bodies to work together to improve the long term sustainability of urban farming as a major secure source of food and employment for urban populations Published with IDRC

Uniting on Food Assistance Christopher Barrett, Julia Steets, 2011-12-20 This book chronicles the most essential causes and implications of these trends which have expanded international food assistance well beyond the simple shipment of donated food aid commodities We pay particular attention to how these trends shape and are shaped by European Union EU and United States U S food assistance policy and practice and highlight the principles to which donors can adhere to move international food assistance forward African Refugees Toyin Falola, Olajumoke Yacob-Haliso, 2023-01-03 African Refugees is a comprehensive overview of the context causes and consequences of refugee lives discussing issues policies and solutions for African refugees around the world It covers overarching topics such as human rights policy frameworks refugee protection and durable solutions as well as less studied topics such as refugee youths refugee camps LGBTQ refugees urban refugees and refugee women It also takes on rare but emergent topics such as citizenship and the creativity of African refugees Toyin Falola and Olajumoke Yacob Haliso showcase the voices and experiences of individual refugees through the sweep of history to tell the African refugee story from the historical past through current developments covering the full range of experience from the causes of flight to living in exile all while maintaining a persistent focus on the complicated search for solutions African Refugees recognizes African agency and contributions in pursuit of solutions for African refugees over time but avoids the pitfalls of the colonial gaze where refugees are perpetually pathologized and Africa is always the sole cause of its own problems seeking to complicate these narratives by recognizing African refugee issues within exploitative global colonial and neo colonial systems of power Global education monitoring report, 2019

UNESCO,2018-12-03 The Report examines the education impact of migration and displacement across all population movements within and across borders voluntary and forced for employment and education It also reviews progress on education in the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development In view of increasing diversity the report analyses how education can build inclusive societies and help people move beyond tolerance and learn to live together Daily Graphic Yaw accomplishments limits and consequences of using quantitative metrics in global health Whether analyzing maternal mortality rates the relationships between political goals and metrics data or the links between health outcomes and a program s fiscal support the contributors question the ability of metrics to solve global health problems They capture a moment when global health scholars and practitioners must evaluate the potential effectiveness and pitfalls of different metrics even as they remain elusive and problematic Contributors Vincanne Adams Susan Erikson Molly Hales Pierre Minn Adeola Oni Orisan Carolyn Smith Morris Marlee Tichenor Lily Walkover Claire L Wendland Population Dynamics, Environment, and Poverty J. T. Mukui,2008 Resolving the Climate Change Crisis Philip Lawn,2016-02-29 This book explains why the climate change crisis is a symptom of a much larger underlying problem namely humankind s predilection with continuous GDP growth Given this starting point the world s high income nations must begin the transition to a qualitatively improving steady state economy and low income nations must follow suit at some stage over the next 20 40 years Unless they do a well designed emissions protocol will be as useless as the paper it is written on Adopting an ecological economic approach this book sets out why we must abandon the goal of continuous growth how we can do so in a way that improves human well being what constitutes a safe atmospheric concentration of greenhouse gases and what type of emissions protocol and emissions trading framework is likely to achieve a desirable climate change outcome Failure of the world s leaders to achieve these goals will not only put future human well being at risk it will threaten freedom in the liberal democratic tradition and international peace Yearbook of International Organizations 2005/2006 ,2005-06 For the Yearbook of International Organizations the most up to date and comprehensive reference to international organizations the UIA has selected the most important 31 086 organizations from its extensive database of current and previous organizations Yearbook provides profiles of 5 546 intergovernmental and 25 540 international non governmental organizations active in nearly 300 countries and territories in the world today Organization descriptions listed in Volume 1 are numbered sequentially to facilitate quick and easy cross referencing from the other Yearbook Volumes Users can refer to Volumes 2 and 3 to locate organizations by region or subject respectively and comprehensive indexes are included Naturally the high standards of accuracy consistency and detail set by previous editions of the Yearbook of International Organizations have been maintained for this edition Yearbook of International Organizations ,1984-12 Annuaire Des Organisations Internationales ,
