for the Times Chris Brooks,2016-07-01 First published in 1984 Signs for the Times explores imaginative and creative relationships between three major areas of mid Victorian arts literature painting and architecture Through the detailed critical analysis of particular novels prose writings paintings and buildings Chris Brooks establishes a fusion of realistic and symbolic values that he sees as central to the Victorian creative imagination He argues that the creative achievement of the mid nineteenth century needs to be seen far more as a whole than it has previously and that fundamental imaginative terms are common to art and architecture to major theoretical writers such as Carlyle Ruskin and Rugin as well as to the central literary figure of Dickens All those interested in literature art or architecture will welcome this interpretation of symbolic realism within the mid Victorian world Letters of Walter Pater Walter Pater,1970 English Art, 1860-1914 David Peters Corbett,Lara Perry,2000 In one of the first studies of its kind Orphan texts seeks to insert the orphan and the problems its existence poses in the larger critical areas of the family and childhood in Victorian culture In doing so Laura Peters considers certain canonical texts alongside lesser known works from popular culture in order to establish the context in which discourses of orphanhood operated The study argues that the prevalence of the orphan figure can be explained by considering the family The family and all it came to represent legitimacy race and national belonging was in crisis In order to reaffirm itself the family needed a scapegoat it found one in the orphan figure As one who embodied the loss of the family the orphan figure came to represent a dangerous threat to the family and the family reaffirmed itself through the expulsion of this threatening difference Orphan texts will be of interest to final year undergraduates postgraduates academics and those interested in the areas of Victorian literature Victorian studies postcolonial studies history and popular culture The Literary World ,1898 The Influence of Pre-Raphaelitism on Fin de Siècle Italy Giuliana Pieri,2007 This volume is the first comprehensive study of the influence of English Pre Raphaelitism on Italian art and culture in the late nineteenth century Analysis of the cultural relations between Italy and Britain has focused traditionally on the special place that Italy had in the British imagination but the cultural and artistic exchanges between the two countries have been much misunderstood This book aims to correct this imbalance by placing Pre Raphaelitism in its European context It explores the nature of its influence on Italy how it was transmitted and how it was manifested by focusing on the role of Italian Anglophiles the English communities in Florence and Rome the writings of Gabriele D Annunzio and a number of Italian artists active in Tuscany and Rome The works of Cellini Ricci Gioja De Carolis and Sartorio in particular fully demonstrate the impact of Pre Raphaelitism on the young Italian school of painting which found in the English movement an ideal link with its glorious past on which it could build a new artistic identity These artists show that English Pre Raphaelitism was one of the most powerful single influences on fin de siècle Italian culture English Literature and the Russian Aesthetic Renaissance Rachel Polonsky,1998-11-05 The turn of the nineteenth century a time of exceptional creativity in Russia was also a time of great receptivity to foreign cultural influences Among the most important of these were English poetry and aesthetic thought which gave new impetus to the Russian imagination This 1998 book is a study of the Russian reception of English literature from Romanticism to aestheticism focusing particularly on the reception by Russian poets of Shelley Ruskin Pater Frazer and Wilde Framing this account is a pioneering exploration of the intellectual background to these influences in comparative scholarship illuminating a common interest in myth folklore anthropology and the origins of language This book discusses the relationship between Russian conceptions of national identity literary influence and the origins of comparative literary history
