changes at home Johnson's Great Society and aggressive Democratic involvement abroad Vietnam in both instances resulting in social catastrophe The narrative continues describing the battle to hold America's traditional Christian political moral foundations based on the American family and local community against the urge of Congressional Progressivists a Liberal media idealistic academics a Boomer generation and federal judges to rewrite those same standards along more Secular lines It covers Nixon's diplomatic successes abroad yet his humiliation at home Watergate the resultant collapse of all social order in Indochina with the retreat of America from the region Carter's discovery that diplomatic niceness is not a good substitute for real power the restoration of American national pride during the Reagan Bush Sr and Clinton years thanks to strong but carefully measured policies the disaster that hit when Bush Jr decided to democratize Afghanistan and Iraq the deep Change that Obama attempted to bring to a centuries old traditional America and finally the arrival of Trump deeply contested by political adversaries It looks at the moral spiritual character rather universally Christian of America's national leadership since 1960 and how that had its own impact on the country even during this distinctly post Christian period The narrative concludes with a review of the various political moral lessons we should draw from America's own national narrative particularly the necessity of getting back into an all important Covenant relationship with God

48 Liberal Lies About American History Larry Schweikart, 2008-09-04 A historian debunks four dozen PC myths about our nation's past Over the last forty years history textbooks have become more and more politically correct and distorted about our country's past argues professor Larry Schweikart The result he says is that students graduate from high school and even college with twisted beliefs about economics foreign policy war religion race relations and many other subjects As he did in his popular A Patriot's History of the United States Professor Schweikart corrects liberal bias by rediscovering facts that were once widely known He challenges distorted books by name and debunks forty eight common myths A sample The founders wanted to create a wall of separation between church and state Lincoln issued the Emancipation Proclamation only because he needed black soldiers Truman ordered the bombing of Hiroshima to intimidate the Soviets with atomic diplomacy Mikhail Gorbachev not Ronald Reagan was responsible for ending the Cold War America's past though not perfect is far more admirable than you were probably taught

A Patriot's History of the United States Larry Schweikart, Michael Allen, 2014-11-25 For the past three decades many history professors have allowed their biases to distort the way America's past is taught These intellectuals have searched for instances of racism sexism and bigotry in our history while downplaying the greatness of America's patriots and the achievements of dead white men As a result more emphasis is placed on Harriet Tubman than on George Washington more about the internment of Japanese Americans during World War II than about D Day or Iwo Jima more on the dangers we faced from Joseph McCarthy than those we faced from Josef Stalin A Patriot's History of the United States corrects those doctrinaire biases In this groundbreaking book America's discovery founding and development are reexamined with an appreciation for the elements of public virtue personal liberty and private property that make this nation uniquely successful This book offers a long overdue acknowledgment of America's true and proud history My History is America's History National Endowment for the Humanities, 1999 15 things you can do to save America's stories
