Daynes, Glen Sussman, Jonathan P. West, 2016-03-01 Examines the role of politics in the environmental policy making process Changing our environmental policy has been at the forefront of many political discussions But how can we make this change come about In American Politics and the Environment Second Edition Byron W Daynes Glen Sussman and Jonathan P West argue it is critical that we must understand the politics of environmental decision making and how political actors operate within political institutions Blending behavioral and institutional approaches each chapter combines discussion of an institution along with sidebars focusing on a particular environmental topic as well as a personal profile of a key decision maker A central focus of this second edition is the emergence of global climate change as a key issue Although the scientific community can provide research findings to policy makers politics can create conflicts tensions and delays in the crafting of effective and necessary environmental policy responses Daynes Sussman and West help us understand the role of politics in the policy making process and why institutional players such as the president Congress and interest groups succeed or fail in responding to important environmental challenges Congressional Record United States. Congress,1999 The Socio-Political Complex A. Khoshkish,2016-07-01 The Socio Political Complex An Interdisciplinary Approach to Political Life explores the socio political complex and the whys of politics Adopting an interdisciplinary approach this book covers topics ranging from political science and other sciences to political culture man s physiological and psychological drives groups and group dynamics metaphysical and material variations of values social semantics and bourgeois nationalism This monograph is comprised of 14 chapters and opens with a discussion on man s psychological anthropological social economic and socio psychological dimensions A historical review of the conversion of power into authority is then presented and bourgeois nationalism is described as the pervasive shape of contemporary politics The last two chapters consider the contours of political institutions processes behavior and systems with emphasis on pluralism government and the Constitution A brief epilogue reflects on some political phenomena that furnish the fabric for the emperor s new clothes This book will appeal to both social and political scientists as well as students and that segment of the general public interested in social problems and politics The Tea Party Papers Volume Ii Bill Miller,2014-01-15 Finally buttressed with Natures bounty fortified with Natures gifts testifying to Natures truth we must be ready to take a leap in faith The hardest leap of faith to believe in is a leap of faith in each other in the individual In the end the only way a government of the Individuals by the Individuals for the Individual can long endure on the face of the Earth Faith in God alone cannot suffice for such a government to work It is the most necessary prerequisite for such a government to exist But it cannot retain it cannot nurture it because the government is a covenant a pact made between God and the individual If we lose faith in the individual we break the sacred pact Being granted so many gifts the last act is in our own hands we are the City on the Hill when we believe we are the City on the Hill When we act the part we are the Light of the world and the Inspiration to the World It is really simple if enough individuals carry out this leap of faith a new critical mass will be reached and a miracle will turn the tide in our affairs once more and we like the patriots of old will once again fulfill our own self actualization process and bequeath to our posterity the ability and responsibility to reach their own Hollywood Goes Shopping David Desser, Garth Jowett, 2000 Aggressive product placement and retail tie ins are as much a part of moviemaking today as high concept scripts and computer generated special effects but this phenomenon is hardly recent Since the silent era Hollywood studios have proved remarkably adept at advertising both their own products and a bewildering variety of consumer commodities successfully promoting the idea of consumption itself Hollywood Goes Shopping brings together leading film studies scholars to explore the complex and sometimes contradictory relationship between American cinema and consumer culture providing an innovative reading of both film history and the evolution of consumerism in the twentieth century Denomination Paul M. Collins, Barry A. Ensign-George, 2011-06-16 The term denomination is now widely used to describe a Christian community or church But what is a denomination In this highly creative collection of essays representatives of all major Christian traditions give an answer to this question What does the term mean in their own tradition And does that tradition understand itself to be a denomination If so what is that understanding of denomination and if not how does the tradition understand itself vis vis those churches which do and those churches which do not understand themselves as denominations In dialogue with the argument and ideas set forth in Barry Ensign George s essay each contributor offers a response from the perspective of a particular church tradition Each essay also considers questions concerning the current landscape of ecumenical dialogue ecumenical method and the goals of the ecumenical movement as well as questions of Christian identity and belonging
