Becker, 2011-04-27 What if you could take your grandchildren on a trip back in time to 1956 This novel combines nostalgia with a grandparents special relationship with his grandchildren in a tale of time travel As he clearly sees their reality he resents the blatant deterioration of our current society Evident is the results of inflation moral degradation and the destruction of family values It is his intent that though their view of the future is dim and having been a victim of child of abuse himself to show them that their ten year old lives will soon change and what they observe and experience will never control their destiny Imagine a grandfather taking his granddaughters on journey back in time when he was their age and the year was 1956 Together he shares what his life was like as he walks with them as equals in this innocent age of nickel pop and penny candy His relationship with his granddaughters is a close one and he mourns the loss of so many freedoms that he enjoyed when he was their age They would nver know a parent sending them out to play and saying be home before dark or just stay in the neighborhood At ten years old in 2011 they unfortunately are aware of what the word predator means and having their television censored for foul language or sexual content So when telling them of the Mickey Mouse Club or Winky Dink they laugh as if it was all fantasy and a fabrication of their Grandpas mind He shares a special bond with them because two are in a broken home shattered by divorce and two are adopted and have formerly suffered the abuse of the foster care system Being a product of a broken home and abuse himself he understands their fears and recognizes that this new generation is having their childhood and innocence destroyed by our culture So at the critical age of ten he lets them visit an era when children could walk freely to the park A time before electronics dominated and interaction with friends and family was all important A time before musical lyrics were censored yet those Oldies but Goodies were considered so threatening as Rock and Roll was born He sees his little girls being thrust into a very adult world long before their time Where texting has replaced direct communication and where the games he once played in the park are now played on video He resents this society where children must guard against dark elements that he never knew of at their age He understands the age of tween where short of adolescence they have an astute perception of adult problems that they already are beginning to worry yet are still very much children He is sorry for the deterioration of society that forces his granddaughters to exist in a culture of Amber Alerts and sex offender registries At ten years old they already have a dim view of relationships being surrounded with a population where nearly 50% of children have broken homes and experience either single parent homes or stepparents Having stated when I was your age so many times they find it unbelievable he gives them a glimpse of the past When men stood and gave a woman their seat and a time when a movie could be seen for a dime An age when soda fountains made ice cream creations and each neighborhood had one and when phones had party lines that were shared by multiple families in a golden time when everything came in glass bottles and people were happy with black and white television and only three channels It was an age when children could truly be children and purchase toys like BB guns and bows and arrows and where every boy had a pocket knife to peel an apple A time when girls had miniature electric sewing machines dinner sets with real knives and forks and electric ovens Where instead having to learn martial arts for self defense he shows them a time when man would never lay a hand on woman and no such situation would even be considered for viewing in television or movies It was when comic books were affordable and like Classics Illustrated even educational as a preview of great literary works This is story of love and relationships with the nostalgia that comes from remembering the Good Humor man and Mickey Mouse Club It was a decade when most had no air conditioning and screen doors and windows were left open without a care It was a time when we looked forward to a future that held such promise and hope Remember when our media promoted family values Hopefully this will recapture some warm memories and understanding what our children are suffering today from a grandparents perspective Zero Day Threat Byron Acohido,Jon Swartz,2008 Banking Deleting Commercial Pornography Sites from the Internet United States.
