Aisha The Wife The Companion The Scholar:

Aisha Resit Haylamaz, 2013-03-01 This book portrays one of the most significant personalities in the history of Islam Taking the misunderstandings and defamation about her into consideration Aisha needs to be understood correctly This study by Dr Resit Haylamaz an expert on the life of the Prophet and his leading Companions reflects her life in various aspects based on reliable reports The book clarifies her critical role at establishing the Islamic teaching with particular reference to her role in the transmission of private matters concerning women and marital relations as well as recording the authentic sayings of the Prophet As her sensitivity at practicing religion is related in a rich variety of examples much disputed issues like her marriage age and her stance about Ali ibn Abi Talib are covered as separate topics The Oxford Handbook of Islam and Women Asma Afsaruddin, 2023 The Oxford Handbook of Islam and Women offers authoritative contributions from well known scholars whose sophisticated and cutting edge research explores the diversity of Muslim women's lives and their accomplishments challenging common stereotypes that are particularly prevalent in the West

Gendering the Ḥadīth Tradition Sofia Rehman, 2024-01-23 Gendering the ad th Tradition presents for the first time a partial translation and study of Imam Badr al Din al Zarkashi's work al Ijaba li Iradi ma Istadraktahu Aisha Ala al Sahabah The Corrective Aisha's Rectification of the Companions It critically analyses from the perspective of hadith criticism a number of sections presenting Aisha's refutations and corrections of key Companions including Umar b al Khattab Abdullah b Abbas Zayd b Thabit and Abu Hurayra applying classical hadith methodology to the scrutiny of narrators by way of impugnement and validation al jarh wa al tadil in an effort to re construct and re present Aisha as a central authority in Islamic knowledge production This work constitutes a major rethinking of the Muslim hadith and jurisprudential traditions by evaluating how Aisha responded to hadiths that were circulating and being ascribed often incorrectly as authoritative statements of the Prophet Muhammad From her critique of overwhelmingly male Companions of the Prophet the study elicits a methodology for hadith criticism which is sure to challenge classical approaches Sofia Rehman unearths the scholarly acumen of this great female Companion and mother of the believers in her discussion of several legal positions which Aisha held in contradistinction to many of the male authorities among the Companions This interdisciplinary study serves as a model for how the voice of Aisha may be given renewed life and significance in the way it re centres her traditions and thinking A crucial aspect is its contributing to expanding the horizons of multiple Islamic disciplines A major contribution to the study of hadith lies in the development of an emergent methodology of Aisha in the scrutiny of the actual statements matn of traditions not just the chains of transmission isnad The contributions of this study to the development of the Muslim legal tradition fiqh also lies in a framework that emerges from this research based on the pattern of how Aisha approaches juridical matters The implications for this are many especially regarding women and their spiritual and daily life and practice

Muslim Women and Gender Justice Dina El Omari, Julianne Hammer, Mouhanad Khorchide, 2019-09-20 This volume brings together the work of a group of Islamic studies scholars from across the globe They discuss how past and present Muslim women have participated in the struggle for gender justice in Muslim communities and around the world The essays demonstrate a diversity of methodological approaches religious and secular sources and theoretical frameworks for understanding Muslim negotiations of gender norms and practices Part I Concepts puts into conversation women scholars who define Muslima theology and Islamic feminism vis vis secular notions of gender diversity and discuss the deployment of the oppression of Muslim women as a hegemonic imperialist strategy The chapters in Part II Sources engage with the Qur'an and hadith and sunna as religious sources to be examined and reinterpreted in the quest for gender justice as God's will and the example of the Prophet Muhammad In Part III Histories contributors search for Muslim women's agency as scholars thinkers and activists from the early period of Islam to the present from Southeast Asia to North America Representing a transnational and cross generational conversation this work will be a key resource to students and scholars interested in the history of Islamic feminism Muslim women gender justice and Islam
