SUBJECT: Report of Independent Investigation into Allegations of Sexual Harassment at NPR

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

The Special Committee of the NPR Board of Directors retained Morgan Lewis to conduct an independent investigation to determine what management knew about allegations of sexual harassment by Michael Oreskes, the former Senior Vice President of News; when management became aware of such allegations; and what, if anything, management did when it learned about the allegations. In the context of this investigation, the Special Committee also requested that we review past complaints of sexual harassment and how they were handled, and NPR's processes and procedures for reporting, investigating, and responding to complaints of sexual harassment in order to make recommendations for process improvements going forward.

Morgan Lewis conducted a two-month investigation as requested by the Special Committee. The results of the investigation are set forth in this report. In summary, there was a flag raised about questionable conduct by Mr. Oreskes during the hiring process. Once hired, flags were raised as early as October 2015. Additional flags were raised in the spring of 2016 through October 2017. Various members of management and legal knew about these flags at various points in time between October 2015 and October 2017. Attempts by several members of management and legal to counsel Mr. Oreskes about his inappropriate behavior were unsuccessful.

With respect to NPR's processes and procedures for reporting, investigating, and responding to complaints of sexual harassment, our investigation revealed that there are areas that can be improved. We have set forth our recommendations later in this report.

REPORT OF INVESTIGATION

I. Background

This investigation was commissioned following reports of sexual harassment and the subsequent termination of former Senior Vice President (SVP) of News, Michael Oreskes. The primary questions presented in this investigation with respect to the allegations against Mr. Oreskes are (1) when did NPR leadership first learn of the allegations and (2) what action, if any, was taken in response to the allegations. While the circumstances leading to the retention of our firm center on Mr. Oreskes, our investigation was not limited to Mr. Oreskes or any other individuals.

During the course of our investigation, we received a significant amount of feedback about the perception of a culture at NPR that favors men. In almost all cases, this feedback did not relay allegations of sexual
