Women Artists in Interwar France Paula J. Birnbaum, 2017-07-05 Women Artists in Interwar France Framing Femininities illuminates the importance of the Soci des Femmes Artists Modernes more commonly known as FAM and returns this group to its proper place in the history of modern art In particular this volume explores how FAM and its most famous members Suzanne Valadon Marie Laurencin and Tamara de Lempicka brought a new approach to the most prominent themes of female embodiment the self portrait motherhood and the female nude These women reimaged art s conventions and changed the direction of both art history and the politics of their contemporary art world FAM has been excluded from histories of modern art despite its prominence during the interwar years Paula Birnbaum s study redresses this omission contextualizing the group s legacy in light of the conservative politics of 1930s France The group s artistic response to the reactionary views and images of women at the time is shown to be a key element in the narrative of modernist formalism Although many FAM works are missing one reason for the lack of attention paid to their efforts Birnbaum s extensive research through archives press clippings and first hand interviews with artists families reclaims FAM as an important chapter in the history of art from the interwar years Le dossier d'"Alcools" Michel Décaudin, 1996

Studies in French Literature Presented to H. W. Lawton by Colleagues, Pupils and Friends Harold Walter Lawton, 1968

British and Foreign State Papers Great Britain. Foreign Office, Great Britain. Foreign and Commonwealth Office, 1870

Selected Poems Guillaume Apollinaire, 2015 Apollinaire is the most significant French poet of early modernism and the only great First World War poet from France He coined the word surrealism and was at the forefront of literary and artistic experimentalism This new selection covers the full range of his career in facing page translations with some pictorial calligrams

The Sober Revolution Joseph Bohling, 2018-12-15 Burgundy Bordeaux Champagne The names of these and other French regions bring to mind time honored winemaking practices Yet the link between wine and place in French known as terroir was not a given In The Sober Revolution Joseph Bohling inverts our understanding of French wine history by revealing a modern connection between wine and place one with profound ties to such diverse and sometimes unlikely issues as alcoholism drunk driving regional tourism Algeria s independence from French rule and integration into the European Economic Community In the 1930s cheap mass produced wines from the Languedoc region of southern France and French Algeria dominated French markets Artisanal wine producers worried about the impact of these inferior products on the reputation of their wines created a system of regional appellation labeling to reform the industry in their favor by linking quality to the place of origin At the same time the loss of Algeria once the world s largest wine exporter forced the industry to rethink wine production Over several decades appellation producers were joined by technocrats public health activists tourism boosters and other dynamic economic actors who blamed cheap industrial wine for hindering efforts to modernize France Today scholars food activists and wine enthusiasts see the appellation system as a counterweight to globalization and industrial food But as The Sober Revolution reveals French efforts to localize wine and integrate into global markets were not antagonistic but instead mutually dependent The time honored winemaking practices that we associate with a pastoral vision of traditional France were in fact a strategy deployed by the wine industry to meet the challenges and opportunities of the post 1945 international economy France s luxury wine producers were more market savvy than we realize Circling the Canon, Volume I Marjorie Perloff,2019-11-15 Circling the Canon Volume I covers roughly the first half of Perloff s career beginning with her first ever review on Anthony Hecht s The Hard Hours Circling the Canon, Volume II Marjorie Perloff,2019-11-15 One of our most important contemporary critics Marjorie Perloff has been a widely published and influential reviewer especially of poetry and poetics for over fifty years Circling the Canon Volume I covers roughly the first half of Perloff s career beginning with her first ever review on Anthony Hecht s The Hard Hours The reviews in this volume culled from a wide range of scholarly journals literary reviews and national magazines trace the evolution of poetry in the mid to late twentieth century as well as the evolution of Perloff as a critic Many of the authors whose works are reviewed in this volume are major figures such as W B Yeats Ezra Pound Sylvia Plath and Frank O Hara Others including Mona Van Duyn and Richard Hugo were widely praised in their day but are now all but forgotten Still others David Antin Edward Dorn or the Language poets exemplify an avant garde that was to come into its own Till One Day the Sun Shall Shine More Brightly Derek Pollard,2020-01-29 Since the publication of From the Abandoned Cities in 1983 Donald Revell has been among the more consistent influencers in American poetry and poetics Yet his work has achieved the status it has his honors include fellowships from the National Endowment for the Arts and the Guggenheim Foundation and awards from the PEN Center USA and American Poetry Review in a manner that has often tended to belie its abiding significance This collection of essays reviews and interviews is designed to ignite a more wide ranging critical appraisal of Revell s writing from his fourteen collections of poems to his acclaimed translations of French symbolist and modernist poets to his artfully constructed literary criticism Contributors such as Marjorie Perloff Stephanie Burt Dan Beachy Quick and Bruce Bond examine key elements in and across Revell s work from his visionary postmodernism Our words can never say the mystery of our meanings but there they are spoken and meaning worlds to us to his poetics of radical attention And so a poem has nothing to do with picking and choosing with the mot juste and reflection in tranquility It is a plain record of one s entire presence in order to enlarge our understanding of how and why that work has come to occupy the place that it has in contemporary American letters France Export-Import, Trade and Business Directory Volume 1 Strategic Information and Contacts IBP, Inc,2013-08 2011 Updated Reprint Updated Annually France Export Import Trade and Business Directory

Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him.
