Airlines, 1996 Tax Reporting on Effective Tax Rate (IAS 12) Eva Frehner, 2024-09-30 In recent years tax reporting on the effective tax rate ETR of multinational enterprises has been widely debated Annual reports presenting low ETRs created the impression that enterprises did not pay enough taxes compared to individuals or small and medium sized businesses Such financial reporting disclosures led to ongoing discussions about the suitability of the existing international tax system and gave rise to several global tax reforms initiated by the OECD This study analyses the level of compliance with internationally applied best practice for tax reporting on the ETR under the IAS 12 in annual reports based on content analysis scores It studies the correlations between the extent of compliance with tax reporting best practice and ETR values market capitalisation level of internationalisation industry and auditor The author combines the empirical research with a normative approach and thus takes an inside out perspective The normative analysis interprets IAS 12 paragraphs in light of Swiss national and international tax law Furthermore the book discusses the impact of the OECD Global Minimum Tax Reform on tax disclosures and argues that the international tax reform will further increase the complexity of tax reporting Defence

Industrial Cooperation in the European Union Daniel Fiott, 2019-03-28 This book provides an empirical understanding of how EU level defence industrial cooperation functions in practice Using the Liberal Intergovernmental theoretical model the book argues that while national economic preferences are an essential factor of government interests they only explain part of the dynamic that leads to the development of defence industrial policy at EU level Moving beyond a simple adumbration of economic preferences it shows how the EU's institutional framework and corpus of law are used by governments to reaffirm their position as the ultimate arbiter and promoter of national economic preferences in the defence industrial sector To this end the work asks why and how EU member state governments European defence firms and EU institutions developed EU level defence industrial policy between 2003 and 2009 The book also analyses significant policy developments including the establishment of a European Defence Agency and two EU Directives on equipment transfers and defence procurement This book will be of much interest to students of EU policy defence studies security studies and International Relations in general

Corporate Compliance on a Global Scale Stefano Manacorda, Francesco Centonze, 2021-11-25 This edited volume presents an innovative and critical analysis of corporate compliance from an interdisciplinary and international perspective It defines the historical framework and the various roles played by corporate compliance in today's context It questions how different cultures affect economic behaviors and under which conditions the individual choices may be directed toward law abiding behavior Examining corporate compliance as a tool of criminal and regulatory policy strategies in different countries and sectors this book also aims to provide a picture of the dimension and scope of the public private partnership focusing on the prevention and detection of corporate crimes It analyzes the effects of corporate compliance on the internal organization in terms of cost benefit assessment as well as the opportunities in technical innovation for detecting and controlling risk
