Maqasid Al-Shari'ah, Ijtihad and Civilization Renewal Mohammad Hashim Kamali,2012-01-01 This paper develops the idea of a maqasid based framework for ijtiḥad and civilizational renewal tajdid ḥadari a broad and engaging prospect that also involves a review and reappraisal of the methodology of Islamic jurisprudence relating to both the maqasid and ijtiḥad. The author argues that this would enable Muslims to widen the scope and horizon of the maqasid or objectives of Islamic law from their currently legalistic leanings towards the wider perspective of civilisational renaissance. The nexus that needs to be developed between the maqasid and ijtiḥad also needs to be supported by a credible methodology which is what the author has attempted in this paper.

Albanian: Maqasid Al-Shariah: A Beginner's Guide Jasser Auda, 2020-01-01

Current applications or rather misapplications of Islamic law are reductionist rather than holistic, literal rather than moral, one dimensional rather than multidimensional, binary rather than multi valued, deconstructionist rather than reconstructionist and causal rather than teleological. There is lack of consideration and functionality of the overall purposes and underlying principles of the Islamic law as a whole. Further exaggerated claims of rational certainty or else irrationality and consensus of the infallible or else historicity of the scripts add to lack of spirituality, intolerance, violent ideologies, suppressed freedoms and authoritarianism. Thus a maqasidi approach takes juridical issues to a higher philosophical ground and hence overcomes historical differences over politics between Islamic schools of law and encourages a much needed culture of conciliation and peaceful coexistence. Moreover the realization of purposes should be the core objective of all fundamental linguistic and rational methodologies of ijtiḥad regardless of their various names and approaches. Thus the validity of any ijtiḥad should be determined based on its level of achieving purposefulness or realizing maqasid al shari'ah.

Islamic Capital Markets Kabir Hassan, Michael Mahlknecht, 2011-04-04

Islamic Finance has experienced rapid growth in recent years showing significant innovation and sophistication and producing a broad range of investment products which are not limited to the complete replication of conventional fixed income instruments, derivatives and fund structures. Islamic Finance represents an elemental departure from traditional interest based and speculative practices, relying instead on real economic transactions such as trade, investment based on profit sharing and other solidary ways of doing business and aims to incorporate Islamic principles such as social justice, ecology and kindness to create investment products and financial markets which are both ethical and sustainable. Products created according to Islamic principles have shown a low correlation to other market segments and are relatively independent even from market turbulences like the subprime crisis. Therefore they have become increasingly popular with secular Muslims and non Muslim investors as highly useful alternative investments for the diversification of portfolios.

In Islamic Capital Markets: Products and Strategies international experts on Islamic Finance and Shariah Law focus on the most imminent issues surrounding the evolution of Islamic capital markets and the development of Shariah compliant products. The book is separated into four parts covering General concepts and legal issues including Rahn concepts in Saudi Arabia, the Shariah process in product development and the integration of social responsibility in financial communities. Global Islamic capital market trends such as the evolution of Takaful products and the past, present and future of Islamic derivatives National and regional experiences from the world s largest Islamic financial market Malaysia to Islamic finance in other countries including Germany France and the US Learning from Islamic finance after the global financial crisis analysis of the risks and strengths of Islamic capital markets compared to the conventional system financial engineering from an Islamic perspective Sharia a compliant equity investments and Islamic microfinance Islamic Capital Markets Products and Strategies is the complete investors guide to Islamic finance Spanish (European): Maqasid Al-Shariah: A Beginner's Guide (Occasional Paper) Jasser Auda, 2014-01-01 Current applications or rather misapplications of Islamic law are reductionist rather than holistic literal rather than moral one dimensional rather than multidimensional binary rather than multi valued deconstructionist rather than reconstructionist and causal rather than teleological There is lack of consideration and functionality of the overall purposes and underlying principles of the Islamic law as a whole Further exaggerated claims of rational certainty or else irrationality and consensus of the infallible or else historicity of the scripts add to lack of spirituality intolerance violent ideologies suppressed freedoms and authoritarianism Thus a maqasidi approach takes juridical issues to a higher philosophical ground and hence overcomes historical differences over politics between Islamic schools of law and encourages a much needed culture of conciliation and peaceful coexistence Moreover the realization of purposes should be the core objective of all fundamental linguistic and rational methodologies of ijti had regardless of their various names and approaches Thus the validity of any ijti had should be determined based on its level of achieving purposefulness or realizing maqasid al shari ah
