Alevel Sociology Paper 2013 Zimsec:

Violence, Politics and Conflict Management in Africa Mawere, Munyaradzi, Marongwe, Ngonidzashe, 2016-09-01

This volume critically interrogates from different angles and dimensions the resilience of conflict and violence into 21st century Africa. The demise of European colonial administration in Africa in the 1960s wielded fervent hope for enduring peace for the people of Africa. Regrettably, conflict alongside violence in all its dimensions—physical, religious, political, psychological, and structural—remain unabated and occupy central stage in contemporary Africa. The resilience of conflict and violence on the continental scene invokes unsettling memories of the past while negatively influencing the present and future of crafting inclusive citizenship and statehood. The book provides fresh insightful ethnographic and intellectual material for rethinking violence and conflict and for fostering long-lasting peace and political justice on the continent and beyond. With its penetrating focus on conflict and associated trajectories of violence in Africa, the book is an inestimable asset for conflict management practitioners, political scientists, historians, civil society activists, and leaders in economics and politics, as well as all those interested in the affairs of Africa.

Children's Lives in an Era of Children's Rights Afua Twum-Danso

Imoh, Nicola Ansell, 2014-01-03. The Convention on the Rights of the Child (CRC), which was adopted unanimously by the United Nations General Assembly in 1989, marked a turning point in the perception of children in international law and policy. Although it was hoped that the Convention would have a significant and positive impact on the lives of all children, this has not happened in many parts of the world. This edited volume, based on empirical research and Non-Governmental Organisation project data, explores the progress of the Convention on the Rights of the Child and, to a lesser extent, the African Charter on the Rights and Welfare of the Child in nine African countries in the 25 years since it was adopted by the UN General Assembly. The book considers the implementation of the Convention both in terms of policy and practice and its impact on the lived experiences of children in societies across the continent, focusing on specific themes such as HIV/AIDS, education, and disability, child labour, witchcraft, stigmatisation, street children, parent-child relationships, and child participation. The book breaks new ground in blending legal and social perspectives of the experiences of children and identifies concrete ways forward for the better implementation of the CRC treaty in the various political contexts that exist in Africa.

Corruption in a Global Context

Melchior Powell, Dina Wafa, Tim A. Mau, 2019-11-12. This book provides an important survey of the causes and current state of corruption across a range of nations and regions. Delving into the diverse ways in which corruption is being combatted, the book explores and describes efforts to inculcate principles of ethical conduct in citizens, private sector actors, and public sector personnel and institutions. Corruption is a global condition that affects every type of government at every level and has bewitched scholars of governance from ancient times to the present day. The book brings together chapters on a range of state and regional corruption experiences, framing them in terms of efforts to enhance ethical conduct and achieve integrity in government practices and operations. In addition, the book addresses and analyses the theoretical and practical bases of ethics that form the background and historical precepts of efforts to create integrity in government practices and finally assesses recent international efforts to address corruption on an international scale This book will be perfect for researchers and upper level students of public administration comparative government international development criminal justice and corruption Eugen Ehrlich's Sociology of Law Knut Papendorf, Stefan Machura, Anne Hellum, 2014 The work of Eugen Ehrlich 1862 1922 is directly relevant for an understanding of law in society and of the role of sociology of law Today it is possible to see behind the smokescreen of historical debates and to assess Ehrlich's key ideas in the light of today's problems The coexistence of state and local law still challenges lawyers and decision makers Ehrlich suggests sociology of law as an instrument to address social and legal problems that supplements standard legal methodology The articles in this book place Eugen Ehrlich in the context of his times outline the international reception of his work and show the relevance of his thoughts for contemporary issues Series Society and Law Gesellschaft und Recht Vol 8 Subject Socio Legal Studies Legal History Development Naivety and Emergent Insecurities in a Monopolised World Mawere, Munyaradzi, 2018-09-17 It is common knowledge that development without security is like a runaway horse Yet development in Africa has been plagued by insecurities since the extractive periods of slave trade and colonialism In spite of political independence and the euphoria of sovereignty as states Africa has failed to address insecurity which continues to loom large and to threaten aspirations towards truly inclusive and sustainable development A consequence has been Africa's development naivety vis vis the monopolisation of development by the predatory elite actors of the global North and their local facilitators To salvage the continent from such predation and the insecurities engendered requires novel and innovative imagination and praxis This book draws from both the haunted landscapes and bitter memories of past exploitations and from the feeding of the insatiable North with African resources and humanity It brings together essays by a concerned generation of scholars driven by the urgent need for radical decolonisation of African development and its legacies of insecurities It is handy to students and practitioners in economics policy studies political science development studies global and African studies Handbook of Research on Social Inequality and Education Wisdom, Sherrie, Leavitt, Lynda, Bice, Cynthia, 2019-06-28 In comparing one public school to another discussions frequently include talk concerning the socioeconomics of a school or district which then leads to talk about the advantages that one socioeconomic setting has over another Educators tend to agree that low academic achievement frequently associated with a low socioeconomic status is a characteristic difficult to resolve for a population of school children The Handbook of Research on Social Inequality and Education is a critical reference source that provides insights into social influences on school and educational settings Featuring an array of topics including online learning social mobility and teacher preparation this book is excellent for educational leaders educational researchers teachers academicians administrators instructional designers and teacher preparation programs The Nexus between Poverty and

Corruption Pregala Pillay, Sakhile Zondi, Purshottama Reddy, Chris Jones, 2023-08-21 This book focuses on and analyses the multi layered multi faceted complex and complicated corruption phenomenon that undermines inter alia democracy government governance development rule of law and accountability how it harms a country s reputation deters trade and investment distorts markets and the performance of economies and has negative effects on the environment for the present and the future generation while detailing the profound consequences for society especially the poor and marginalised by violating trust human rights and increasing inequality Corruption and poverty have become endemic evils in Africa and there is no blueprint solution for them given the varying situations and conditions across the continent This book proposes a holistic all inclusive and multi thronged approach to the corruption and poverty epidemic targeting Africa This collection of chapters will be of interest to students and academics alike Who's who in Zimbabwe ,1991 Progress towards sustainable agriculture - Drivers of change Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations, 2021-12-06 The Progress towards Sustainable Agriculture initiative PROSA is a framework that seeks to complement ongoing efforts on the Sustainable Development Goals SDGs and particularly indicator 2.4.1 to support country level assessments using data already available at the national level Making agriculture more sustainable productive environmentally friendly resilient and profitable is fundamental as agriculture remains the main source of livelihood for the majority of the world s poor and hungry The pathway towards sustainable agriculture must ensure increasing output but also make more efficient use of increasingly scarce global resources be resilient to and help mitigate climate change and improve human well being This technical study examines the key factors driving changes in trends in the indicators of sustainable agriculture and provides decision makers with insights into viable options for achieving this goal The study identifies five key groups of drivers that most influence these indicators globally The ways in which each driver affects the multiple dimensions of sustainability highlights the interconnections synergies and trade offs that must be managed in different global contexts to achieve agricultural sustainability The analysis can help decision makers operating in different country contexts to identify practical solutions to ensure that their interventions contribute positively to a more sustainable agriculture Inventing the New Dispensation in Zimbabwe Ezra Chitando, Lovemore Togarasei, Joram Tarusarira, 2024-11-14 How does a regime whose members have been actively involved in the previous one appropriate and deploy religious ideas and rhetoric to cast itself as born again and attractive Exploring intersections between politics religion and economics this book examines invention of Zimbabwe s New Dispensation the regime of Emmerson D Mnangagwa and how it has aimed to separate itself from the previous regime of Robert G Mugabe Utilizing the concept of invention contributors reflect on how Mnangagwa and his publicists deploy religious ideas concepts and rhetoric in the quest for legitimacy in a heavily contested political field The book also reflects on the ways opposing political actors have utilized the same template in their quests to secure power The contributors interrogate the use of time theological ideas and religious practices to separate Mnangagwa s regime from Mugabe s This book provides insight into how religious rhetoric is used not only to gain but also to contest legitimacy in Zimbabwe's political sphere
