To regain her footing, Hope escapes to the beach for a long weekend. A Divine Scavenger Hunt transports the reader to a place we have all longed to go through a supernatural encounter with a force beyond understanding. Living with Dying Joan Berzoff, Phyllis R. Silverman, 2004 The first resource on end of life care for healthcare practitioners who work with the terminally ill and their families. Living with Dying begins with the narratives of five healthcare professionals who, when faced with overwhelming personal losses, altered their clinical practices and philosophies. The book provides ways to ensure a respectful death for individuals, families, groups, and communities and is organized around theoretical issues in loss, grief, and bereavement and around clinical practice with individuals, families, and groups. Living with Dying addresses practice with people who have specific illnesses such as AIDS, bone marrow disease, and cancer, and pays special attention to patients who have been stigmatized by culture, ability, sexual orientation, age, race, or homelessness. The book includes content on trauma and developmental issues for children, adults, and the aging who are dying, and it addresses legal, ethical, spiritual, cultural, and social class issues as core factors in the assessment of and work with the dying. It explores interdisciplinary teamwork, supervision, and the organizational and financing contexts in which dying occurs. Current research in end of life care, ways to provide leadership in the field, and a call for compassion, insight, and respect for the dying make this an indispensable resource for social workers, healthcare educators, administrators, consultants, advocates, and practitioners who work with the dying and their families.
