Abstract: This paper discusses the role of the state in the development of the private sector in the context of the transition from a centrally planned to a market economy. It argues that the state should play a role in the development of the private sector, but that this role should be limited to the provision of a legal and institutional framework for the private sector to operate in. The paper also discusses the role of the state in the development of the private sector in the context of the transition from a centrally planned to a market economy. It argues that the state should play a role in the development of the private sector, but that this role should be limited to the provision of a legal and institutional framework for the private sector to operate in.
