Smoking and health: a report of the surgeon general United States. Office on Smoking and Health,1979

Pharmacokinetics, Metabolism, and Pharmaceuticals of Drugs of Abuse National Institute on Drug Abuse,1997 How

Tobacco Smoke Causes Disease United States. Public Health Service. Office of the Surgeon General,2010 This report considers the biological and behavioral mechanisms that may underlie the pathogenicity of tobacco smoke Many Surgeon General s reports have considered research findings on mechanisms in assessing the biological plausibility of associations observed in epidemiologic studies Mechanisms of disease are important because they may provide plausibility which is one of the guideline criteria for assessing evidence on causation This report specifically reviews the evidence on the potential mechanisms by which smoking causes diseases and considers whether a mechanism is likely to be operative in the production of human disease by tobacco smoke This evidence is relevant to understanding how smoking causes disease to identifying those who may be particularly susceptible and to assessing the potential risks of tobacco products Health

Consequences of Smoking DIANE Publishing Company,1995-09 Examines the scientific evidence that cigarettes and other forms of tobacco are addicting Concludes that processes that determine tobacco addiction are similar to those that determine addiction to other drugs such as heroin and cocaine Tables and figures Bibliography Index Regulation of Tobacco

Products United States. Congress. House. Committee on Energy and Commerce. Subcommittee on Health and the Environment,1995 Tobacco Use Among United States Racial/ethnic Minority Groups United States. Department of Health and Human Services,1998 This Surgeon General s report on tobacco use summarizes current information on risk factors and patterns related to tobacco use among members of four major racial and ethnic minority groups in the United States African Americans American Indians and Alaska Natives Asian Americans and Pacific Islanders and Hispanics In addition this report presents information on national and regional efforts to curtail consumption of tobacco products among members of these four groups Previous Surgeon General s reports on smoking and health have briefly summarized findings related to one or more of the racial ethnic groups covered in this report but this is the first Surgeon General s report to concentrate specifically on the four major racial ethnic groups in the United States Several factors prompted the development of this report First the information in this report has never before been compiled in one source Consequently policymakers community leaders researchers and public health workers have had difficulty determining the extent of the problem identifying gaps in in_ formation regarding tobacco use among members of the four groups or being aware of existing tobacco con_ trol programs that have demonstrated effectiveness Thus incorporating such information into the design and implementation of culturally appropriate services has been difficult Second the four racial ethnic groups currently constitute about one fourth of the population of this country and the Bureau of the Census projects that by 2050 the non Hispanic white population in the United States will total only 53 percent Day 1996 Prevent_ ing health problems related to tobacco use among the individuals in racial and ethnic groups will be integral to achieving U S public health objectives such as those proposed in Healthy People 2000 National Health Promotion and Disease Prevention Objectives U S Department of Health and Human Services USDHHS 1991 1995 National Center for Health Statistics NCHS 1994 This report contributes essential knowledge that must be incorporated into efforts to accomplish the Healthy People 2000 objectives Regulation of Tobacco Products United States, United States.
