

A Literary Analysis On “Fiesta, 1980” by Junot Diaz

5 pages | 1070 words

Junot Diaz's "Fiesta, 1980" presents a story of a teenage Latin boy named Yunior, who re-counts the stories of his dysfunctional family of immigrants from the Dominican Republic who are all attending a private party in the Bronx, New York City. Yunior is the middle teenage son of Papi and Mami, second to his brother Rafa and older than his sister Madai, who suffers from recurring motion sickness during road trips in his father's brand new, lime green, Volkswagen van. At the very beginning, as Papi arrives home from "work" (later assumed to be his second girlfriend's house, the Puerto Rican) to leave for their party, Yunior states "If Papi had walked in and caught us lounging around in our underwear, man, he would have kicked our asses or something serious." (Diaz, 1996).

The evidence to confirm some sort of anxiety disorder in Yunior in response to this type of negative treatment from his father is prevalent from the start, as we are exposed to Papi's commanding personality. Parental psychological and physical abuse leads to a multitude of anxiety disorders in children and affects an estimated "8-10 of every 100 children and adolescents." (Rizvi, Najma, 2014). In this short story, the author first presents us with a complex main character who, at a rather young age, is already displaying a wide variety of psychological disorders due to parental (primarily father) abuse. In a closer analysis of this main character, the most prevalent of disorders would include phobia (of his father as well as their family road trips in the van), generalized anxiety disorder related to fear, and the initial stages of an eating disorder after Papi attributes Yunior's motion sickness to poorly timed meals.

Phobia can be generally defined as an unrealistic and overwhelming fear of a specific object, person or situation; in this case it is a combined fear of Papi and family road trips. To be exact, a fear of road trips to the Puerto Rican's home in Papi's new lime green van never fail to put Yunior over the edge. Yunior irrationally fears that he is always the only one in trouble with his dad and though he does admit that he occasionally likes the attention, he clearly does not enjoy the physical pain. Each of Papi's three children display a fear of him in a considerably different manner, presumably due to their ranking birth order.

Rafa the oldest, having most likely been the first to have endured such physical force from their father, does his best to avoid these violent situations as they arise: "Rafa had already started inching away from me... moving out of the way every time Papi was going to smack me." (Diaz, 1996). While Yunior's much younger sister Madai, who most likely will never suffer this type of physical abuse from their father but still hears the verbal cruelty, is also avoidant and usually "too scared to open her eyes." (Diaz, 1996). It is evident that Yunior strives to gain recognition from his father and though he fears the physical force that will undoubtedly follow,...

Junot Díaz José David Saldívar,2022-08-29 In Junot Díaz On the Half Life of Love José David Saldívar offers a critical examination of one of the leading American writers of his generation He explores Díaz's imaginative work and the diasporic and immigrant world he inhabits showing how his influences converged in his fiction and how his writing especially his Pulitzer Prize winning novel The Brief Wondrous Life of Oscar Wao radically changed the course of US Latinx literature and created a new way of viewing the decolonial world Saldívar examines several aspects of Díaz's career from his vexed relationship to the literary aesthetics of Whiteness that dominated his MFA experience and his critiques of the colonialities of power race and gender in culture and societies of the Dominican Republic United States and the Americas to his use of the science fiction imaginary to explore the capitalist zombification of our planet Throughout Saldívar shows how Díaz's works exemplify the literary currents of the early twenty first century

Paratexts and Performance in the Novels of Junot Díaz and Sandra Cisneros Ellen McCracken,2016-04-30 Part of a new phase of post 1960s U S Latino literature The Brief Wondrous Life of Oscar Wao by Junot Díaz and Caramelo by Sandra Cisneros both engage in unique networks of paratexts that center on the performance of latinidad Here Ellen McCracken re envisions Genette's paratexts for the present day arguing that the Internet increases the range authorship and reach of the paratextual portals and that they constitute a key element of the creative process of Latino literary production in 21st century America This smart and useful book examines how both novelists interact with the interplay of populist and hegemonic multiculturalism and allows new points of entry into these novels

Latino Dreams Paul Allatson,2002 A welcome addition to the fields of Latino and trans American cultural and literary studies Latino Dreams focuses on a selection of Latino narratives published between the mid 1980s and the mid 1990s that may be said to traffic in the U S A's attendant myths and governing cultural logics The selection includes novels by authors who have received little academic attention Abraham Rodríguez Achy Obejas and Benjamin Alire Sáenz along with underattended texts from more renowned writers Rosario Ferré Coco Fusco and Guillermo Gómez-Peña Latino Dreams takes a transcultural approach in order to raise questions of subaltern subordination and domination and the resistant capacities of cultural production The analysis explores how the selected narratives deploy specific narrative tactics and a range of literary and other cultural capital in order to question and reform the U S A's imaginary coordinates In these texts moreover national imperatives are complicated by recourse to feminist queer panethnic postcolonial or transnational agendas Yet the analysis also recognizes instances in which the counter narrative will is frustrated the narratives may provide signs of the U S A's hegemonic resilience in the face of imaginary disavowal

Radical Health Julie Avril Minich,2023-09-25 In Radical Health Julie Avril Minich examines the potential of Latinx expressive culture to intervene in contemporary health politics elaborating how Latinx artists have critiqued ideologies of health that frame wellbeing in terms of personal behavior Within this framework poor health obesity asthma diabetes STIs addiction and high risk pregnancies is attributed to irresponsible lifestyle choices among the racialized poor Countering this Latinx writers and visual artists envision health not as individual duty but as communal responsibility Bringing a disability justice approach to questions of health access and equity Minich locates a concept of radical health within the work of Latinx artists including the poetry of Rafael Campo the music of Hurray for the Riff Raff the fiction of Angie Cruz and the performance art of Virginia Grise Radical health operates as a modality that both challenges the stigma of unhealth and protests the social conditions that give rise to racial health disparities Elaborating on this modality Minich claims a critical role for Latinx artists in addressing the structural racism in public health
