Teaching in Themes Deborah Meier, Matthew Knoester, Katherine Clunis D'Andrea, 2015 How do teachers and schools create meaningful learning experiences for students with diverse skills abilities and cultures How can teachers authentically assess the learning of their students and build on their strengths and interests in ways that enrich the larger community How can schools be turned into places where everyone is learning from each other These are the big questions that guide the work of teachers at the well known Mission Hill School in Boston and that are addressed in this book Teaching in Themes will help schools incorporate a whole school theme based curriculum that engages students across grade levels K 8 The authors provide detailed descriptions of four thematic units What s Baking Learning Together About Bread and Bakeries The Impact of Nature and Play The Struggle for Justice U S History Through the Eyes of African Americans and Astronomical Inquiries Readers will see how teachers and students design emergent inquiries within the themes and create artwork music presentations and a variety of hands on learning experiences that support differentiated instruction across the curriculum Book Features Examples of whole school projects designed to create a deep sense of immersion in a curricular theme and to build a multi age learning community Details of how teachers developed rich curriculum tailored to their unique students The insights of legendary educator Deborah Meier on how whole school thematic units were used to encourage collaboration among teachers An afterword by teachers and film makers about the thinking behind their work featured in the widely viewed film series A Year at Mission Hill The schools Deborah Meier created in New York and Boston are outstanding examples of democratic education in action I will never forget the first time

I visited one of Deborah's schools in East Harlem and saw the joy and curiosity on the faces of children and teachers alike. I took time then to carefully describe the school's practices including its portfolio-based assessment system because I believed the word needed to be spread. I still do. Happily this new book from Deborah and her colleagues at the Mission Hill School adds to the literature on creative and collaborative teaching and on building trusting and powerful learning communities.

Linda Darling Hammond, Charles E. Ducommun, Professor of Education, Stanford University: Here is a book that shatters the prevailing definition of a good school as one with high test scores. Teaching in Themes makes clear the often hidden fact that there are many kinds of good schools for children, adults, and a democratic society, past and present. Experienced teachers tell a fascinating story about Boston's Mission Hill School, its goals, curriculum, classroom lessons, and assessments that will knock the socks off many true believers in only one kind of a good school.

Larry Cuban, Professor Emeritus of Education, Stanford University: Real student engagement is not the result of entertaining instruction; it is borne from students being passionate about their own learning about becoming young experts. This book gives a behind-the-scenes look at Mission Hill, a remarkably successful public school where the quality of student thinking and student work takes precedence over test scores and where thematic learning builds powerful intellectual bridges within classrooms and across the school.

Ron Berger, chief academic officer, Expeditionary Learning: It's Not Your Fault Jillian Campana, Dina Amin, The Cairo Writers Lab, 2023-03-07. A collection of original short plays that focus on sexual harassment and assault in Egypt by debut Egyptian playwrights. These five original short plays written by Egyptian students from the American University in Cairo in collaboration with Jillian Campana and Dina Amin mark the first published plays in Egypt that deal directly with sexual harassment. Sexual crimes are not limited to the workplace or the street; they happen everywhere, from the bedroom to the cafe, in shops, on modes of transportation, and in businesses, homes, outdoor areas, and educational and religious institutions. They can be perpetrated by a stranger, acquaintance, friend, family member, or loved one, and they can encompass many different types of sexual violence, including verbal, non-verbal, physical, or visual violence. This collection breaks social taboos by offering dramatic texts that reflect the reality of survivors of sexual harassment from multiple perspectives: families and couples, bystanders, victims, and perpetrators, men and women. Many of the women portrayed in these plays are independent, educated, and well-to-do, but they are all subjected to varying degrees of sexual harassment and violence. Accompanied with narrative commentary that places the events in context, these plays and the issues they explore seek to challenge dominant perceptions about sexual harassment in the region and to shine light on the power imbalances and disparities that give rise to it. They will be of interest to artists, social science researchers, educators, and anyone interested in the issue of sexual harassment and collaborative theater processes.

Playwrights: Yehia Abdelghhan, Marwan Abdelmoneim, Nour El-Captan, Passant Faheem, Nour Ibrahim, Noran Morsi, and Omar Omar. The research on which this book is based was awarded the Times Higher Education 2023 MENA Award for Research Project of the Year, Arts, Humanities, and Social Sciences. Performances of these
