Comprehensive and comparative this volume investigates African American street novelists since the Chicago Black Renaissance and the semiotic strategies they employ in publication consumption and depiction of street life Divided into three chapters this text analyzes the content style and ethics of street narrative through a discursive rhetorical lens exploring the development of street literature's formal and contextual concerns to resolve the sociocultural and political questions surrounding cultural work The book also gives emphasis to text or post structural literary analysis by answering questions about the genre's aesthetic and linguistic techniques that respond to the injustices of urban planning The last chapter Representation investigates the phenomenological hermeneutics of more recent street literature and its satire highlighting the political stakes for authorship credibility and subjectivity Through historical and contemporary studies of urban space Blackness and adaptations of street literature this work attempts to network activists artists and scholars with the greater reading public by providing a functional ontology of reading the inner city After Critique Mitchum Huehls, 2016 Taking up four different political themes human rights the relation between public and private space racial justice and environmentalism After Critique suggests that the ontological forms emerging in contemporary U.S. fiction articulate a version of politics that might successfully evade neoliberal appropriation The Cambridge Companion to the Literature of the American South Sharon Monteith, 2013-08-19 This Companion maps the dynamic literary landscape of the American South From pre and post Civil War literature to modernist and civil rights fictions and writing by immigrants in the global South of the late twentieth and twenty first centuries these newly commissioned essays from leading scholars explore the region's established and emergent literary traditions Touching on poetry and song drama and screenwriting key figures such as William Faulkner and Eudora Welty and iconic texts such as Gone with the Wind chapters investigate how issues of class poverty sexuality and regional identity have textured Southern writing across generations The volume's rich contextual approach highlights patterns and connections between writers while offering insight into the development of Southern literary criticism making this Companion a valuable guide for students and teachers of American literature American studies and the history of storytelling in America Handbook of Research on Teaching Literacy Through the Communicative and Visual Arts, Volume II James Flood, Shirley Brice Heath, Diane Lapp, 2015-04-22 The Handbook of Research on Teaching Literacy Through the Communicative and Visual Arts Volume II brings together state of the art research and practice on the evolving view of literacy as encompassing not only reading writing speaking and listening but also the multiple ways through which learners gain access to knowledge and skills It forefronts as central to literacy education the visual communicative and performative arts and the extent to which all of the technologies that have vastly expanded the meanings and uses of literacy originate and evolve through the skills and interests of the young A project of the International Reading Association published and distributed by Routledge Taylor Francis Visit <http://www.reading.org> for more information about International Reading Association books membership and other services

Beyond the White Negro Kimberly Chabot Davis, 2014-07-15 Critics often characterize white consumption of African American culture as a form of theft that echoes the fantasies of 1950s era bohemians or White Negroes who romanticized black culture as anarchic and sexually potent In Beyond the White Negro Kimberly Chabot Davis claims such a view fails to describe the varied politics of racial crossover in the past fifteen years Davis analyzes how white engagement with African American novels film narratives and hip hop can help form anti racist attitudes that may catalyze social change and racial justice Though acknowledging past failures to establish cross racial empathy she focuses on examples that show avenues for future progress and change Her study of ethnographic data from book clubs and college classrooms shows how engagement with African American culture and pedagogical support can lead to the kinds of white self examination that make empathy possible The result is a groundbreaking text that challenges the trend of focusing on society's failures in achieving cross racial empathy and instead explores possible avenues for change

Neo-Passing Mollie Godfrey, Vershawn Young, 2018-02-21 African Americans once passed as whites to escape the pains of racism Today's neo passing has pushed the old idea of passing in extraordinary new directions A white author uses an Asian pen name heterosexuals live out as gay and irony of ironies whites try to pass as black Mollie Godfrey and Vershawn Ashanti Young present essays that explore practices performances and texts of neo passing in our supposedly postracial moment The authors move from the postracial imagery of Angry Black White Boy and the issues of sexual orientation and race in ZZ Packer's short fiction to the politics of Dave Chappelle's skits as a black President George W Bush Together the works reveal that the questions raised by neo passing questions about performing and contesting identity in relation to social norms remain as relevant today as in the past Contributors Derek Adams Christopher M Brown Martha J Cutter Marcia Alesan Dawkins Michele Elam Alisha Gaines Jennifer Glaser Allyson Hobbs Brandon J Manning Loran Marsan Lara Narcisi Eden Osucha Gayle Wald and Deborah Elizabeth Whaley

Abolishing White Masculinity from Mark Twain to Hip-hop Stephany Rose, 2014-03-25 Abolishing White Masculinity from Mark Twain to Hip-hop examines white American male literature for its social commentary on the construction of whiteness in the United States Whiteness has always been a contested racial identity in the U S one in a state of construction and reconstruction throughout critical cultural and historical moments This text examines how white American male writers have grappled with understanding themselves and their audiences as white beings Abolishing White Masculinity from Mark Twain to Hip-hop specifically brings a critical whiteness approach to American literary criticism and strengthens the growing interdisciplinary field of critical whiteness studies in the humanities Critical whiteness studies shifts the attention from solely examining people and perspectives of color in race discourse to addressing whiteness as an essential component of race ideology The primary contribution of this perspective is in how whites construct and see whiteness for the larger purpose of exploring the possibilities of how they may come to no longer construct and see themselves through whiteness Understanding this is at the heart of contemporary discussions of post raciality

Abolishing White Masculinity from Mark Twain to Hip hop uses the following texts as canonical case studies Pudd'n head Wilson and Those Extraordinary Twins by Mark Twain The Great Gatsby and The Beautiful and the Damned by F Scott Fitzgerald and Angry Black White Boy and The End of the Jews by Adam Mansbach Each underscores the dialectic of formation deformation and reformation of whiteness at specific socio historical moments based upon anxieties about race possessed by whites and highlighted by white fictionists The selected writers ultimately serve dually as co constructors of whiteness and social critics of their times through their literature
