Case Problems in Finance W. Carl Kester, 1997 The primary course for this book is the case course in Finance taught to all finance majors at both the MBA and undergraduate level. This is typically a capstone course at the undergraduate level and either the first or second course at the MBA level. Case Problems in Finance is a Harvard case course that presents real business situations that pose debatable alternative courses of action. The cases contain problems that can be narrowed but not always settled by the usual techniques of financial analysis. The cases are grouped by major topics: financial analysis and forecasting, cost of capital, working capital management, capital budgeting, dividend policy, debt policy, financial execution and mergers and restructuring.

Mutual Fund Investment by Salaried Investors: Identifying the Determinants Dr. Sujit Deb, Dr. Ranjit Singh, 2018-06-14 Mutual fund investment by salaried investors. Identifying the determinants is a book which attempts to throw light upon the determinants of mutual fund investment among the salaried investors. It is a well-known fact that the salaried class in India possesses some unique characteristics which place them in a different category than that of other investors. This book addresses the issues directly associated with the salaried investors. Of late, a lot of research work is going on in the field of behavioural finance. This book is simply an extension of the work in the field of behavioural finance, especially the areas which deal with respect to investment in mutual funds. Studies in the area of behavioural finance, especially related to the mutual fund investment, is gaining momentum in India and hence teaching and research in this field is also increasing. There is a dearth of good books on this issue. This book is expected to fill up that gap. The book is expected to make the lives of teachers, students and researchers relatively easier. The knowledge received from this book will go a long way in shaping the future of education of behavioural finance in India.
