Anatomy Of Inculturation Transforming The Church In Africa:

Anatomy of Inculturation Magesa, Laurenti ,2014-12-03 In his quest to identify practices that strengthen the faith of African Christians Magesa examines the nature of being church today in Kenya Tanzania and Uganda Transforming Masculinities in African Christianity Adriaan van Klinken,2016-02-17 Studies of gender in African Christianity have usually focused on women This book draws attention to men and constructions of masculinity particularly important in light of the HIV epidemic which has given rise to a critical investigation of dominant forms of masculinity These are often associated with the spread of HIV gender based violence and oppression of women Against this background Christian theologians and local churches in Africa seek to change men and transform masculinities Exploring the complexity and ambiguity of religious gender discourses in contemporary African contexts this book critically examines the ways in which some progressive African theologians and a Catholic parish and a Pentecostal church in Zambia work on a transformation of masculinities The Art of Indigenous Inculturation Sison, Antonio D.,2021-06-16 The inculturation of the Christian message is examined through examples of art from Africa the Philippines and the Mexican American community The Church-as-family and Ethnocentrism in Sub-Saharan Africa Gerald K. Tanye,2010 Ethnocentrism is one of the greatest obstacles to peace on the African continent Taking the Church as Family of God as a model of evangelization this work explores means of inculturating the Gospel message in African cultures in order to transform them make them blossom and enable Africans to live as authentic Christians in their cultures It examines the values of African extended families and the prospects of interreligious dialogue as means through which the various religious bodies can effectively work together to overcome ethnocentrism and its evil effects and thus establish a wholesome African society where every human person is at home irrespective of family orientation or tribal background African Christian Theology, Volume 2, Number 1, March 2025 Joshua Robert Barron,2025-10-14 African Christian Theology is the academic journal of the Association for Christian Theological Education in Africa ACTEA The mission of ACTEA is to strengthen theological education through accreditation scholarship and support services to serve the church and transform society The journal is one way in which ACTEA engages theological educators and church leaders in addressing relevant issues facing the church and society in Africa African Christian Theology serves the whole of Africa and provides a venue for conversations between different regions of Africa as well as an organ through which African voices can address World Christianity at large Following in the footsteps of Kwame Bediako Byang Kato K Mana Lamin Sanneh Andrew F Walls and Isaac Zokou the journal promotes World Christianity perspectives through deep engagement with African contextual realities Articles are published in English French and Portuguese each article has a trilingual abstract in those languages ACTEA was founded in 1976 by the Theological and Christian Education Commission of the Association of Evangelicals in Africa AEA Under its continued sponsorship ACTEA operates with internal autonomy in the accreditation of programmes of theological education throughout Africa in order to stimulate the improvement and standardization of such programmes and in order to secure academic recognition for such programmes wherever possible especially among the constituencies of these institutions in Africa and among similar institutions and their constituencies overseas

Mother Earth, Mother Africa and Mission Seblewengel Daniel, Mmapula Diana Kebaneilwe, Angeline Savala, 2021-07-01 The volume is significant in bringing together voices of African women theologians and their allies on the urgent topic of ecology First it decisively intervenes into scholarly discourses on ecofeminism by highlighting the reflections of African women scholars and African women as subjects This function of the volume is very important both at local and global levels Second it contributes to contextualizing of scriptural interpretation around the issue of ecology Biblical reflection occurs throughout the volume and is put into dialogue with African traditions with ecofeminism with Africa based mission projects and with the current crisis of sustainability and African women's roles in protecting the earth Third the volume includes several concrete case studies based on interviews and grassroots qualitative research as well as especially original articles that integrate biblical exegesis of Genesis with reflections on patriarchal legal systems in Botswana and an original take on male headship in relation to ecofeminism Professor Dana L Robert Boston University USA
