Peter Bankart,2006 A unique approach to male anger management using mindfulness compassion and self awareness exercises to help men understand and deal with angry feelings that can damage their careers and relationships 'Bad' Women of Bombay Films Saswati Sengupta,Shampa Roy,Sharmila Purkayastha,2019-12-06 This book presents a feminist mapping of the articulation and suppression of female desire in Hindi films which comprise one of modern India's most popular cultural narratives. It explores the lineament of evil and the corresponding closure of chastisement or domesticity that appear as necessary conditions for the representation of subversive female desire. The term bad is used heuristically and not as a moral or essential category to examine some of the iconic disruptive women of Hindi cinema and to uncover the nexus between patriarchy and other hierarchies such as class, caste and religion in these representations. The twenty-one essays examine the politics of female desire from the 1930s to the present day both through in-depth analyses of single films and by tracing the typologies in multiple films. The essays are divided into five sections indicating the various gendered desires and rebellions that patriarchal society seeks to police, silence and domesticate. Education, Equality and Human Rights Mike Cole, 2022-08-12. The fifth edition of the market-leading Education, Equality and Human Rights has been fully updated to reflect economic, political and cultural changes in the UK, including the impacts of Brexit and Covid-19. It considers the great changes we are witnessing in recent years, such as climate change, emergency pandemics, the Fourth Industrial Revolution and their interrelationships. Written by world experts in their respective fields, each of the five equality issues of gender, race, sexuality, disability and social class is covered in their own right as well as in relation to education. Key issues explored include human rights, equality and education, women and equality historically and now, gender, education and social change, race and racism through history and today, racism and education from Empire to Johnson, sexualities, identities and equality challenges in teaching and learning about sexuality and homo and trans phobia in schools, disability, equality as the last Civil Right, developing inclusive education and governments' resistance, social class, neoliberal capitalism and the Marxist alternative, selective schooling, mystifying social class, neoliberalism and alternatives. With an uncompromising and rigorous analysis of equality issues and a foreword from Peter McLaren addressing challenges to democracy in the US, this new edition of Education, Equality and Human Rights is an essential and contemporary resource across a wide range of disciplines and for all those interested in education, social policy and human rights. Ian Fleming and James Bond Edward P. Comentale, Stephen Watt, Skip Willman, 2005-04-20. Shaken not stirred: cultural critics look at the many faces of 007 and his creator. Span the World with Friendship Douglas Bourn, Richard Palser, 2025-06-02. Within the histories of progressive educational movements and youth work, one organisation that rarely gets a mention is the Woodcraft Folk. Founded in 1925, it has been consistently at the forefront of promoting radical social change through education. It played a role in breaking down the barriers between East and West during the Cold War, in promoting a co-educational and cooperative-based approach to learning and in encouraging environmental activism at a time when it was unfashionable. The Woodcraft Folk's evolving approach to education for social change is explored in Span the World with Friendship from a range of disciplinary perspectives, including political and social theory, cultural history, anthropology, educational theory and youth work theory. Through investigation of published and primary sources, including letters, meeting records and oral testimonies, contributors bring scholarship to a narrative that has often been uncritical Beginning with a biography of founder Leslie Paul chapters study the Folk s relationship to debates in the labour movement the extent to which the eugenics movement influenced its ideas and practices and how the folk songs and dances used within the organisation reflected wider social and cultural trends Internationalism is a key theme running through this book which concludes with a focus on how the Woodcraft Folk s progressive nature is moving it increasingly towards being a youth led movement

New Critical Perspectives on the Beatles Kenneth Womack,Katie Kapurch,2016-06-09 The Beatles are probably the most photographed band in history and are the subject of numerous biographical studies but a surprising dearth of academic scholarship addresses the Fab Four New Critical Perspectives on the Beatles offers a collection of original previously unpublished essays that explore new aspects of the Beatles The interdisciplinary collection situates the band in its historical moment of the 1960s but argues for artistic innovation and cultural ingenuity that account for the Beatles lasting popularity today Along with theoretical approaches that bridge the study of music with perspectives from non music disciplines the texts under investigation make this collection new in terms of Beatles scholarship Contributors frequently address under examined Beatles texts or present critical perspectives on familiar works to produce new insight about the Beatles and their multi generational audiences Conversations with John Steinbeck John Steinbeck, 1988 Gathers interviews with Steinbeck from each period in his career and offers a brief profile on his life and accomplishments
