paper under the design you are coloring in to avoid bleed Do not be afraid to go over some lines Many sections are tiny it is up to you to choose which contour lines to stay within and which to combine to choose your own patterns Not only does it encourage creative thinking it also helps to make each individual work differently to the last Be colorful No one wants to see another black and white killer whale or grey koala Pick some colors as many as you want and start coloring in The more colorful the better Embrace the weirdness You may see that the animals are missing an eye or have a strange shaped foot Embrace it This animals are not drawn anatomically correct Have fun and take your time Coloring in should not be a chore you should not force yourself to finish a page when you do not feel like it and you should not rush to finish any piece of art Slow down and enjoy the process Backgrounds are left blank but feel free to add your own You may choose to continue with the mosaic theme or create something special of your own
