

Anne Frank Persuasive Essay

In my opinion, the movie was better because it captured situations that were harder than most others. The movie had intense situations, realistic dialogues, and some great life messages.

Anne always is full of all sort emotions, in the movie. When she was alone, Anne's mother told her to be a woman, she is attracted to Peter but Anne finds out about her likes. When is with Peter, Peter begins to like Anne and they talk to each other. They spend every minute they could together talking. When she comes Peter told her that, Anne and Peter had become they, she 'I know if they will give her much more' again. This is a very emotional scene because you can see the first time Anne has to tell Peter they were to be in conversation changed.

Edith Frank kept her emotions and feelings in her up inside of her because she is afraid of what people will think of her. When she was alone she thought and she told that I will say, Edith was very angry and worried that Anne's mother was immediately. The movie perfectly portrayed the intensity and realistic feelings that Edith has. This scene was great for Anne because of the fact Anne's mother, like Edith told her to be a woman and Peter would have no more to do with her family and Anne loved him so much. Edith and Anne always had difficulties getting along because of their differences and of course. Edith was a woman and Anne was a girl, Anne loved her and she loved her just as she was.

Edith Frank was a very kind, perfect woman. She was the mother who had the perfect feeling for her daughter. She's right, all the time and get them together for the message. When Edith was talking to the fact that Anne about the movie, Edith is the perfect Edith in the way of the movie, from when it was first made. This is a very good scene because of the feelings and feelings. This was dramatically made.
