1 Nov 2014 Geography Question Paper 1 November 2013:

Asian Defence Review 2014-15 Air Marshal Vinod Patney, 2015-08-15 The revival of major world power rivalry is a striking feature of the current international affairs. In the year gone by, Europe supported by the US vied with Russia for influence in Ukraine, a race that led to the annexation of Crimea by Russia and a pro-Russian insurgency in that region. In Asia, while the US is gradually drawing down in Afghanistan, it is also seeking to counter the growing influence of China. The sole Super Power is garnering support from China's neighbours. India included, to balance the resurgent Dragon. Meanwhile, the rapid growth of ISIS has disturbed the world peace. The progress made in the negotiations on Iran's nuclear programme is likely to affect calculations and equations all over the world. No region is impervious to the happenings in another part of the world. Competition, read rivalries and geopolitical shifts pose myriad challenges to the peace-loving nations of the world. Quite often, they are faced with the difficulty of evading armed conflicts. It requires conscious and sustained effort to do so. In order to work towards such goals, it is necessary to look at geopolitical security and military-related issues objectively. The Centre for Air Power Studies has been publishing the Asian Defence Review to fulfill this need. This volume, a resource base for both the professional and the general readers, is the eighth in the series under this title. It aims to add to the pool of information and knowledge in the current strategic discourse dealing with military strategy, defence politics and trends in military capabilities that impact Asia. In particular, it covers some of the important issues related to Air Power, Tactical Nuclear Weapons, Cyber Security, Network Centric Warfare, Environmental Degradation, Iran, Pakistan and China. Oswaal

i.1/april 2021 (Versão Inglês) Vera Lúcia Lopes Cristóvão,Viviane Bagio Furtoso,Federico Navarro,2022-03-14 Signum Estudos da Linguagem is a publication edited by the Graduate Program in Language Studies of the State University of Londrina UEL It aims at disseminating original papers articles and reviews on linguistic description and analysis text discourse studies teaching learning and Portuguese foreign and other languages teachers education Sentencing Policy and Social Justice Ralph Henham,2018-02-22 Sentencing Policy and Social Justice argues that the promotion of social justice should become a key objective of sentencing policy advancing the argument that the legitimacy of sentencing ultimately depends upon the strength of the relationship between social morality and penal ideology It sheds light on how shared moral values can influence sentencing policy at a time when relationships of community appear increasingly fragmented arguing that sentencing will be better placed to make a positive contribution to social justice if it becomes more sensitive to the commonly accepted moral boundaries that underpin adherence to the rule of law The need to reflect public opinion in sentencing has received significant attention more recently with renewed interest in jury sentencing stakeholder sentencing and the involvement of community views when regulating policy The author however advocates a different approach combining a new theoretical focus with practical suggestions for reform and arguing that the contribution sentencing can make to social justice necessitates a fundamental change in the way shared values about the advantages of punishment are reflected in penal ideology and sentencing policy Using examples from international comparative and domestic contexts to advance the moral and ethical case for challenging the existing theories of sentencing the book develops the author's previous theoretical ideas and outlines how these changes could be given practical shape within the context of sentencing in England and Wales It assesses the consequences for penal governance due to increased state regulation of discretionary sentencing power and examines the prospects for achieving the kind of moral transformation regarded as necessary to reverse such a move To illustrate these issues each chapter focuses on a particularly problematic area for contemporary sentencing policy namely the sentencing of women the sentencing of irregular migrants sentencing for offences of serious public disorder and sentencing for financial crime Australian Gothic Jonathan Rayner,2022-06-01

The book reads the Gothic characteristics of Australian cinema within their national cultural context. The book relates the key motifs and concerns of Gothic literature to the styles, narratives, and significance of Australian films. The book places examples of Australian Gothic film within the Australian filmmaking and film criticism and relates these to the wider trends of international horror film.
