

Technology has highly evolved over time. In fact, nowadays almost everybody has some sort of machine at hand, be it computers, cars, or even washing machines. But although machinery was devised to benefit mankind, it has also brought along many flaws to match.

Firstly, when it comes to technological equipment such as computers, disruption most often arises between the person using the computer, and the household he or she is surrounded by, or living with. For example, many old family traditions such as eating meals with your relatives at the dining table seldom take place now that one of the family members might be too busy working on his Mac laptop. Thus, family values and morals have changed in order to adapt to this technological age.

Secondly, having many kinds of machinery at hand is not only destroying family traditions, but is also very harmful to our environment. Many people are careless about allowing their car engines to run haphazardly, or leaving their laptops on for long periods of time, however they do not seem aware of the fact that all this energy and electricity consumption is dangerous to not only our local environment, but to the world as a whole. Additionally, it is the over-usage of machinery, big or small that is bringing our society ever closer to Global Warming, and we must stop.

As I mentioned in my introduction, technological equipment was never programmed to damage nature per se, but to help people all around the globe. Now that nuclear families aren't as closely intact compared to the 1950s or 1990s, technology has given us an alternative method to keep in touch with our relatives thanks to computer applications such as SKype, or even cell phone applications such as VIBER or WhatsApp. Machinery has most definitely done wonders in our lives, and we as people should be grateful to easily possess cars, and/or phones when poorer countries do not even have the chance to.

However, with all the advantages machinery has brought to us all, I personally believe that possessing too many cars or phones, or even consuming too much of their energy and battery, is beginning to get out of hand and needs to be controlled.

Brighten Your English Writing Skills K. Singh, 2022-03-13 Every human knows at least one language spoken or signed Linguistics is the science of language including the sounds words and grammar rules Words in languages are finite but sentences are not It is this creative aspect of human language that sets it apart from animal languages which are essentially responses to stimuli The rules of a language also called grammar are learned as one acquires a language These rules include phonology the sound system morphology the structure of words syntax the combination of words into sentences semantics the ways in which sounds and meanings are related and the lexicon or mental dictionary of words When you know a language you know words in that language However the sounds and meanings of words are arbitrary For the most part there is no relationship between the way a word is pronounced and its meaning Jensen's Format Writing Frode Jensen,2016-10-04 Jensen s Format Writing is concerned with developing expository writing skills for high school students This type of writing exposes puts forth explains reveals or exhibits in detail about something It has a purpose to inform clarify and perhaps even to persuade Such writing may simply describe or it may give a series of reasons In any case there is a fundamental point that is made How that point is made may often determine whether the piece is accepted or rejected Students completing this course will learn valuable skills the secret of cutting your work in half when it comes to writing a paper how to order your presentation for its most powerful effect on the reader a technique for getting the essence of what you read down on paper for future reference how to stack up your ideas so that they flow together in a natural fashion how to move ideas from sentence to sentence by following a simple rule all about what and how to document your sources when doing research and writing How to Do Your Essays, Exams and Coursework in Geography and Related Disciplines Peter Knight,A.
