Breaking Point Rebecca Schwartz Greene,2023-01-03 WINNER SOCIETY FOR MILITARY HISTORY DISTINGUISHED BOOK AWARDS FIRST BOOK This book informs the public for the first time about the impact of American psychiatry on soldiers during World War II Breaking Point is the first in depth history of American psychiatry in World War II Drawn from unpublished primary documents oral histories and the author s personal interviews and correspondence over years with key psychiatric and military policymakers it begins with Franklin Roosevelt s endorsement of a universal Selective Service psychiatric examination followed by Army and Navy pre and post induction examinations Ultimately 2 5 million men and women were rejected or discharged from military service on neuropsychiatric grounds Never before or since has the United States engaged in such a program In designing Selective Service Medical Circular No 1 psychiatrist Harry Stack Sullivan assumed psychiatrists could predict who might break down or falter in military service or even in civilian life thereafter While many American and European psychiatrists questioned this belief and huge numbers of American psychiatric casualties soon raised questions about screening s validity psychiatric and military leaders persisted in 1942 and 1943 in endorsing ever tougher screening and little else Soon families complained of fathers and teens being drafted instead of being identified as psychiatric 4Fs and Blacks and Native Americans among others complained of bias A frustrated General George S Patton famously slapped two malingering neuropsychiatric patients in Sicily a sentiment shared by Marshall and Eisenhower though they favored a tamer style Yet psychiatric rejections evacuations and discharges mounted While psychiatrist Roy Grinker and a few others treated soldiers close to the front in Tunisia in early 1943 this was the exception But as demand for manpower soared and psychiatrists finally went to the field and saw that combat itself not predisposition precipitated breakdown leading military psychiatrists switched their emphasis from screening to prevention and treatment But this switch was too little too late and slowed by a year long series of Inspector General investigations even while numbers of psychiatric casualties soared Ironically despite and even partly because of psychiatrists wartime performance plus the emotional toll of war postwar America soon witnessed a dramatic growth in numbers popularity and influence of the profession culminating in the National Mental Health Act 1946 But veterans with PTSD not recognized until 1980 were largely neglected Collier's ,1899 Harpers Weekly ,1865 Do You Really Want to be an Entrepreneur? Karel Vermeulen,2019-03-05 Do You Really Want to be an Entrepreneur serves as a practical hands on guide for aspiring entrepreneurs start ups and small business owners to take immediate action for profitable success Written from personal experience Do You Really Want to be an Entrepreneur shares how Karel Vermeulen started his entrepreneurial journey from humble beginnings in his kitchen It also shows how he grew his home based business to a global multimillion dollar business For those who have an idea but don't know how to turn it into a profitable business or for those small business owners who feel stuck Karel shares his knowledge to empower readers to become even more successful than him He guides readers through struggles and challenges shining a bright light on what not to do At the end of each chapter Karel includes a list of practical exercises readers can work through before moving on to the next chapter demonstrating how action and speed of implementation are some of the many secrets to success Readers learn how they can turn their idea into a million dollar business how crucial it is to have correct branding and marketing how to separate a business brand from a personal brand and ultimately how the way someone changes is the way they succeed
