

Part 2

[20 marks]

You must answer this question.

Question 2

Your class has been talking about electronic gadgets used during online classes. Your teacher has asked you to write an essay about it as your homework.

In your essay, you should write about:

- the best electronic gadget for online learning ^{Smartphone}
- the reasons for it
- applications you used for online learning

Google calendar, G.M, Zoom, Youtube

Use all the notes above and give reasons for your point of view.

Write your essay in 125 – 150 words in an appropriate style.

After a sudden change in lifestyle due to the recent ^{pandemic} Covid-19, I bet every student and teacher had to get used to using electronic gadgets for online lessons when the lockdown was implemented. I am no exception, as I had to face the lockscreen of my smartphone every morning to catch up with all the online classes.

In my honest opinion, I believe that smartphones are the best electronic device for online learning. One of the reasons include it being incredibly convenient, as I get to bring it along with me wherever I go. I don't have to worry about missing any extra online lessons from any subject teachers, as I can just plug in my earphones no matter the location of my whereabouts and listen intently to teacher's voice. I could be relaxing in a cosy cafe as I concentrate on listening to teacher's explanation on complex concepts and theories in the subject of ~~Physics or~~ chemistry.

Answer Spm 2006 English:

Mathematical Reviews, 2008 Second Language Learning Before Adulthood Vanessa De Wilde, Claire

Goriot, 2022-10-24 Researchers have looked into the role of individual differences in second language learning and found that differences between learners in areas such as language aptitude language learning motivation and exposure to the language influence second language learning Most of this research concerned adults Far fewer studies have addressed the role of individual differences in second language learning of young learners As second language learning programmes tend to start earlier than before and children are nowadays frequently exposed to a foreign language in social settings such as online games and social media studying the role of individual differences in young learners can contribute both to SLA theories and to evidence based L2 education This book discusses recent findings concerning the role of individual differences in language learning in young learners The chapters in the book concern different topics linked to internal individual differences such as language aptitude motivation attitude and external individual differences such as exposure and type of instruction the relative contribution of internal and external factors to language learning and the interplay between the two types of individual differences Handbook of Generative Approaches to Language Acquisition Jill de Villiers, Tom

Roeper, 2011-08-27 Modern linguistic theory has been based on the promise of explaining how language acquisition can occur so rapidly with such subtlety and with both surprising uniformity and diversity across languages This handbook provides a summary and assessment of how far that promise has been fulfilled exploring core concepts in acquisition theory including notions of the initial state parameters triggering theory the role of competition and frequency and many others across a variety of syntactic topics that have formed the central domains of investigation and debate These topics are treated from the unique perspective of central actors in each domain who have helped shape the research agenda The authors have presented a summary of the data the theories under discussion and their own best assessments of where each domain stands Providing as well the agenda for future work in the field showing both particular needs and general directions that should be pursued in the coming decades Taylor's 7th Teaching and Learning Conference 2014 Proceedings Siew Fun
