Shadows

Shadows are made when an object blocks light. The object must be opaque or translucent to make a shadow.

Long Shadows

The sun casts the longest shadows at the beginning and end of the day, when the sun is at a low point in the sky.

Short Shadow

The sun casts the shortest shadows at midday, when the sun is at a high point in the sky.

Sizes

If an object is moved closer to the light source, the shadow gets bigger. If an object is moved further away from the light source, the shadow gets smaller.

Opaque

Opaque materials do not let any light pass through them. They block the light and make dark shadows. Materials such as wood, paper and metal are opaque.

Translucent

Translucent materials let some light pass through them. They scatter the light and make faint shadows. Materials such as frosted glass and thin paper are translucent.

Transparent

Transparent materials let light pass through them in straight lines, so that you can see clearly through them. A transparent object lets light pass so it does not make a shadow.

Love's Shadow Paul A. Bové,2021-01-12 A case for literary critics and other humanists to stop wallowing in their aestheticized helplessness and instead turn to poetry comedy and love Literary criticism is an agent of despair and its poster child is Walter Benjamin Critics have spent decades stewing in his melancholy What if instead we dared to love poetry to choose comedy over Hamlet s tragedy or to pursue romance over Benjamin s suicide on the edge of France of Europe and of civilization itself Paul A Bov challenges young lit critters to throw away their shades and let the sun shine in Love s Shadow is his three step manifesto for a new literary criticism that risks sentimentality and melodrama and eschews self consciousness The first step is to choose poetry There has been since the time of Plato a battle between philosophy and poetry Philosophy has championed misogyny while poetry has championed women like Shakespeare s Rosalind Philosophy is ever so stringent try instead the sober cheerfulness of Wallace Stevens Bov s second step is to choose the essay He praises Benjamin s great friend and sometime antagonist Theodor Adorno who gloried in writing essays not dissertations and treatises The third step is to choose love If you want a Baroque hero make that hero Rembrandt who brought lovers to life in his paintings Putting aside passivity and cynicism would amount to a revolution in literary studies Bov seeks nothing less and he has a program for achieving it
