Global Trend Vampire Romance:

The Global Vampire Cait Coker, Donald E. Palumbo, C.W. Sullivan III, 2020-01-10 The media vampire has roots throughout the world far beyond the shores of the usual Dracula inspired Anglo American archetypes Depending on text and context the vampire is a figure of anxiety and comfort humor and fear desire and revulsion These dichotomies gesture the enduring prevalence of the vampire in mass culture it can no longer articulate a single feeling or response bound by time and geography but is many things to many people With a global perspective this collection of essays offers something new and different a much needed counter narrative of the vampire s evolution in popular culture Divided by geography this text emphasizes the vampiric as a globetrotting citizen du monde rather than an isolated monster Monstrosity and Global Crisis in Transnational Film, Media and Literature Steven Rawle, Martin Hall, 2024-07-09 Monsters have always rampant border crossers from Dracula s journey from Romania to Whitby to the rampaging monsters of Godzilla movies across global cities This volume studies how their transnationality reflects an era of global crisis Monstrosity has long been explored in a number of ways that connect gender sexuality class race nationality and other forms of otherness with depictions of monsters or monstrosity This book however explores cultural flow as it relates to the construction of a transnational genre by both producers and audiences It also examines the ramifications of representations of monstrosity in socio political terms as they relate to a tumultuous era of global crises This era has of course been amplified and altered by the Covid pandemic which frames much of the content of this collection This ongoing crisis imbues the discourses of monstrosity global catastrophe and societal and human vulnerability with its significant expression in artistic terms The Gothic in Contemporary
