Spirituality, Gender, and the Self in Renaissance Italy Querciolo Mazzonis, 2007-03 Angela Merici 1474 1540 like other mystic women such as Catherine of Siena was considered a santa viva a living saint by virtue of her mysticism sacred knowledge human qualities and participation in civic life However Angela s originality and genius reside above all in the foundation of the Company of St Ursula It is there that she put her theology into practice and translated her spiritual ideas and experience into a defined model of religious life for women

Spirituality Gender and the Self in Renaissance Italy places St Angela Merici and her Company of St Ursula in historical and religious context and examines them from a variety of perspectives institutional social spiritual and cultural By analyzing Merici s spirituality the book contributes to two fields of research that have been particularly rich and contentious women s religious life and early modern Catholicism The Company of St Ursula long mistaken for a charitable or educational confraternity proposed a form of consecration for women outside the convent similar to that lived by late medieval women such as the beguines and the tertiaries Merici s ideal of spiritual life inward looking a institutional democratic public and transcendent codified into a religious rule the irregular features of the female approach to the sacred It offered women the possibility of living beyond the limits imposed on them Furthermore Merici s spirituality is compared with a vast array of religious practices promoted by important religious thinkers of her time such as Battista da Crema Erasmus of Rotterdam and Ignatius Loyola The book seeks to understand the historical significance of spirituality by linking religious models with relevant aspects of Renaissance society and culture In particular the author examines the forms of relationship with God and perfection in relation to a Renaissance notion of the self and in connection with gender concepts Methodologically the application of historical literary cultural and anthropological concepts to the subject leads to a rich cross fertilization of theoretical approaches

Angela of Foligno's Memorial Angela (of Foligno), Cristina Mazzoni, 1999 The powerful voice of major Italian medieval woman mystic translated with commentary Angela of Foligno is considered by many as the greatest mystical voice among Italian medieval women She devoted herself to a relentless pursuit of God when as a middle aged woman she lost her mother husband and children illiterate herself she dictated her experiences to her confessor who transcribed her words into Latin as the Memorial In a direct and vigorous style it tells of her suffering visions joy identification with Christ and finally her mystical union with God However her book has always been viewed with suspicion indeed even bordering on heresy her spirituality goes beyond conventional language as well as beyond accepted doctrines and modes of prayer This annotated selection from the Memorial is preceded by a biographical introduction which places Angela's text in its historical cultural and spiritual context the accompanying interpretive essay which follows compares Angela's experience with that of twentieth century Christian feminist theologians The volume is completed with an annotated bibliography CRISTINA MAZZONI is Professor and Chair Department of Romance Languages and Linguistics at the University of Vermont
