

DBQ 13: THE TRAGIC PRELUDE TO WAR

Historical Background

Since the birth of the United States, the North and South divisions of the country have cultivated diverse cultures, economies, religious values, and traditions. Still, it was the reliance on slave labor that lodged the conflict between both of the regions. On one hand, the South needed the institution of slavery to keep up with the needs of its plantations. On the other hand, the North sustained itself with factories and had a minimal desire for slaves. This growth of industrialization spurred disagreement on behalf of the Northern states and the dispute intensified with the creation of the Compromise of 1850 and the Kansas-Nebraska Act. Both pieces of legislation added new states to the Union. Advocates of slavery believed these laws would provide a chance to establish more slave states. In contrast, adversaries of slavery deemed that the institution should not expand into other regions. Over the course of time, both sides retaliated—the North with the abolitionist movement and the South with its threats of secession. Eventually, the South would attempt to dissolve the Union and begin the American Civil War.
