Confessions of a Grieving Mother Sherry Anne Coombe, 2014-04-10 I did not cry. The moment came when Heather died. I did not shed a tear. I felt numb like I was having an out-of-body experience and I was watching myself go through the motions. There were things to do, people to call. It was not the time to begin to fall apart. I had just joined an elite club of grieving mothers. This was the club no one talked about or wanted to become a member of. From that moment on, my life was getting a makeover that I didn't ask for, let alone consent to allowing it to happen. It was beyond my control. I was not given a choice. This was and is my life now. I am a grieving mother for the rest of my life.

This resource includes over 60 Christian symbols with activities designed to teach the background of each symbol. Reproducible patterns included for most symbols.
