Anthropology Matters, Second Edition Shirley A. Fedorak, 2012-10-24 Anthropology Matters places the study of anthropology concretely in the world by which it is surrounded It takes a question based approach to introducing important anthropological concepts by embedding those concepts in contemporary global issues that will interest students The second edition of this popular text has been updated throughout and includes four new chapters on language revitalization social media and social revolutions human migration and the role of NGOs in international development practice Students can now engage with the most up to date issues while learning to think anthropologically

Critical English for Academic Purposes Sarah Benesch, 2001-03-01 Critical English for Academic Purposes Theory Politics and Practice is the first book to combine the theory and practice of two fields English for academic purposes and critical pedagogy English for academic purposes EAP grounds English language teaching in the cognitive and linguistic demands of academic situations tailoring instruction to specific rather than general purposes Critical pedagogy acknowledges students and teachers subject positions that is their class race gender and ethnicity and encourages them to question the status quo Critical English for academic purposes engages students in the types of activities they are asked to carry out in academic classes while inviting them to question and in some cases transform those activities as well as the conditions from which they arose It takes into account the real challenges non native speakers of English face in their discipline specific classes while viewing students as active participants who can help shape academic goals and assignments Critical English for Academic Purposes Theory Politics and Practice relates English for academic purposes and critical pedagogy revealing and problematizing the assumptions of both fields provides theoretical and practical responses to academic syllabi and other institutional demands to show that teachers can both meet target demands and take students subjectivities into account in a climate of negotiation and possibility offers rights analysis as a critical counterpart to needs analysis discusses the politics of coverage in lecture classes and proposes alternatives and features teaching examples that address balancing the curriculum for gender building community in an EAP class of students from diverse economic and social backgrounds students rights and organizing students to change unfavorable conditions This book is intended for undergraduate and graduate courses for preservice and in service ESL and EAP teachers It is also a professional book for those interested in critical approaches to teaching and EAP

Sexual Paradox: Complementarity, Reproductive Conflict and Human Emergence Christine Fielder, Chris King, 2006 Unlocks the keys to the paradox of how sexual selection fertilized the explosion of culture and the resulting fallout in sexual dominion of man over woman and nature How sexuality generates the universe through symmetry broken complementarity The implicit conflict of interests of sexual intrigue in the prisoners dilemma and its ecstatic resolution in the cosmology of love Sexual dominance as a koan for planetary crises 560 pages containing 270 illustrations

Caring for Patients from Different Cultures Geri-Ann Galanti, 2014-12-19 Healthcare providers in the American medical system may find that patients from different cultures bring unfamiliar expectations anxieties and needs into the examination room To provide optimal care for all patients it is important to see differences from the patient s perspective and to work with patients from a range of demographics Caring for Patients from Different Cultures has been a vital resource for nurses and physicians for more than twenty years offering hundreds of case studies that illustrate crosscultural conflicts or misunderstandings as well as examples of culturally competent health care Now in its fifth edition Caring for Patients from Different Cultures covers a wide range of topics including birth end of life communication traditional medicine mental health pain religion and multicultural staff challenges This edition includes more than sixty new cases with an expanded appendix introduces a new chapter on improving adherence and updates the concluding chapter with examples of changes various hospitals have made to accommodate cultural differences Grounded in concepts from the fields of cultural diversity and medical anthropology Caring for Patients from Different Cultures provides healthcare workers with a frame of reference for understanding cultural differences and sound alternatives for providing the best possible care to multicultural communities Perspectives on Human Sexuality Anne Bolin, Patricia Whelehan, 1999-07-01 Presents the first book length examination of both the biological and cultural factors in human sexuality When Christians Roamed the Earth Jack Cuzzo, 2001-10 Discusses such diverse issues as The role of evolution in culture Are UFOs real Is Noah's flood an historical reality Neanderthals and other cave men and their place in time The church and the doctrine of Creation Is modern culture beyond hope Page 4 of cover Sicilian Epic and the Marionette Theater Michael Buonanno, 2014-04-04 This study analyzes the folkloric genres that comprise the repertoire of the marionette theater in Sicily Here epic farce saints lives bandits lives fairytales Christian myth and city legend offer the vehicles by which puppeteers comment upon critique perhaps even negotiate the relationships among the major classes of Sicilian society the aristocracy the people the clergy and the Mafia The lynchpin of the repertoire is the Carolingian Cycle and in particular a contemporary version of The Song of Roland known in Sicily as The Death of the Paladins a text which illustrates the means by which the Carolingian heroes Charlemagne Roland Renaud Ganelon and Angelica augment saints bandits Biblical figures and Sicilian folk heroes to provide the marionette theater its rhetorical function the articulation and dissemination of the tools of Sicilian identity Blacked Out Signithia Fordham, 1996-03-13 This innovative portrait of student life in an urban high school focuses on the academic success of African American students exploring the symbolic role of academic achievement within the Black community and investigating the price students pay for attaining it Signithia Fordham's richly detailed ethnography reveals a deeply rooted cultural system that favors egalitarianism and group cohesion over the individualistic competitive demands of academic success and sheds new light on the sources of academic performance She also details the ways in which the achievements of successful African Americans are blacked out of the public imagination and negative images are reflected onto black adolescents A self proclaimed native anthropologist she chronicles the struggle of African American students to construct an identity suitable to themselves their peers and their families within an arena of colliding ideals This long overdue contribution is of crucial importance to educators policymakers and ethnographers
