Irving, Michael Benjamin, 1995-07-19 As divorce rates rise family mediation represents an alternative way of making settlements without involving an already overburdened judicial system This book presents a discussion of the current North American trends in the burgeoning field of family mediation by featuring both a review of the literature and a model for family mediation practice The practice model presented here Therapeutic Family Mediation stresses an ecological perspective and considers the feminist critique of the mediation process The authors also address mediation's role in the important issues of joint custody ethnicity and child protection Future directions in family mediation are examined in the final part Annual Editions: Aging Harold Cox, 2006-04 Selected articles from journals magazines and newspapers on the subject of aging Family Diversity Olaf Kapella, Christiane Rille-Pfeiffer, Marina Rupp, Norbert F.

Schneider,2010-03-17 Family in all its aspects Familienbande International experts provide an overview of the current state of the art of European family research and outline the multiple formations structures and configurations of family in Europe Four aspects are discussed in depth family images sex gender roles globalisation and family development processes Influenced by globalisation European countries experience processes which still have greatly varying consequences Cultural differences reflected in a range of family schemes and national family policies are one reason for the continued existence of differences in the scope and speed of change processes Quite generally images and concepts of family have become more heterogeneous and flexible The flip side of this coin is that family members are increasingly faced with the challenges of achieving a satisfactory work life balance a task aggravated by globalisation We therefore need to ask how family policy can help families enjoy adequate freedom of action and latitude for their decision making To summarise a read well worth the effort for all experts working in family research and family policy
