Big Deal Kevin Winkler, 2018 Bob Fosse is one of the most significant figures in the post World War II American musical theater Big Deal Bob Fosse and Dance in the American Musical is a fascinating look at the evolution of Fosse as choreographer and director It traces his early dance years the influence of mentors George Abbott and Jerome Robbins and the impact of his three marriages all to dancers on his career The New York Times Index, 1966 Prior series comprised of the original handwritten index for Sept 18 1851 Aug 31 1858 reproduced in facsimile and the newly prepared index for Sept 1858 Dec 1912 Werner's Magazine, 1898 Performing Asian Transnationalisms Amanda Rogers, 2014-09-19 This book makes a significant contribution to interdisciplinary engagements between Theatre Studies and Cultural Geography in its analysis of how theatre articulates transnational geographies of Asian culture and identity Deploying a geographical approach to transnational culture Rogers analyses the cross border relationships that exist within and between Asian American British East Asian and South East Asian theatres investigating the effect of transnationalism on the construction of identity the development of creative praxis and the reception of works in different social fields This book therefore examines how practitioners engage with one another across borders and details the cross cultural performances creative opportunities and political alliances that result By viewing ethnic minority theatres as part of global rather than simply national cultural fields Rogers argues that transnational relationships take multiple forms and have varying impetuses that cannot always be equated to diasporic longing for a homeland or as strategically motivated for economic gain This argument is developed through a series of chapters that examine how different transnational spatialities are produced and re worked through the practice of theatre making drawing upon an analysis of rehearsals performances festivals and semi structured interviews with practitioners The book extends existing discussions of performance and globalization particularly through its focus on the multiplicity of transnational spatiality and the networks between English language Asian theatres Its analysis of spatially extensive relations also contributes to an emerging body of research on creative geographies by situating theatrical praxis in relation to cross border flows Performing Asian Transnationalisms demonstrates how performances reflect and rework conventional transnational geographies in imaginative and innovative ways The Athenæum, 1845 Humour in British First World War Literature Emily Anderson, 2023-09-11 This book explores how humorous depictions of the Great War worked to familiarise domesticate and tame the conflict While well known examples of First World War literature often emphasize enormous emotional disruption and the war's extremes other writers used humour to encourage a gentle mild amusement drawing on familiar popular genres and forms used before 1914 In humorous portrayals of the war tameness outdoes the unmanageable and the temperate exceeds the extraordinary Humour in British First World War Literature is based on little known primary material uncovered from detailed archival research as well as works that though written by celebrated authors tend not to be placed in the canon of Great War literature Each chapter examines key examples of literary texts ranging from short stories and poetry to theatre and periodicals in doing so investigating the complex representational political and social significance of the tame strand in humorous Great War literature Literary Gazette and Journal of Belles Lettres, Arts, Sciences, Etc William Jerdan, William Ring Workman, Frederick Arnold, John Morley, Charles Wycliffe Goodwin, 1833 British Theatre Between the Wars, 1918-1939 Clive Barker, Maggie B. Gale, 2000 This volume initiates a long overdue reassessment of mid twentieth century British theatre cultures “The” Athenaeum , 1892 Werner's Voice Magazine Edgar S. Werner, 1897
